Return From Trip

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McNeese of Elk River left on May 6 for a vacation trip of one month and returned June 3 after having traveled about five thousand miles through five states, visiting relatives of both of them and also friends of many years.

In Boise, Ida., they visited her nephew, then on to Montezuma Creek, Utah, where her brother, H. C. Hunter, is superintendent of El Paso Natural Gas Company.

In Colorado the McNeeses visited the Mesa Verde cliff dwellings where they saw some artifacts that are said to be 15,000 years old. Some corn which had been kept sealed for possibly 750 years looked as though it would grow if put in the ground.

They found Durango, Colo., to be another spot filled with history and from there went to Lubbock, Tex., where the sad note of their trip was experienced. Mr. McNesse's sister was in the hospital as a result of the emotional shock of losing her son, whose funeral was the day before they arrived, and since it was impossible to visit with her they went to Abilene where they visited the D. E. Burns family who have visited in Port Orford. When they returned to Lubbock they found the sister much improved and had a wonderful visit with her. At Waco, Tex., they visited his sister, Mrs. Dan Cash, and her three married sons, then on to Ranger to visit a niece.

As they began their trip they stopped in Graham, Tex., where they especially enjoyed a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lobaugh whom they had known before they were married--and that was 45 years ago.

At Silverton, Tex., the McNeeses report that "all of their kith and kin" from many miles around had a reunion for them and then they drove across New Mexico back to Idaho into Eastern Oregon and then home to Port Orford.

They wish to express a fervent "thank you' to Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Leer, neighbors on Elk Creek, who cared for their dog while they were gone and to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morris for caring for their bird.

Cub Scouts Assist In Memorial Service

On Memorial Day, 1968, at 10 a.m. Port Orford Cub Scouts David and Mike Schroeder, Darrell and Billy Cobb and Chris Wagner went to the cemetery with representatives of the American Legion and Auxiliary and, after presenting the Colors, placed 42 swags and flags on the graves of war Veterans.

These Cubs from Pack 98 placed a memorial wreath at the base of the flag in memory of the Unknown Soldier and put special wreaths on the graves of the two oldest veterans who are buried in the cemetery. They were Isaac Johnson of the 94th Infantry in Massachusetts, who died in 1912, and Leland White, brother of Gene White, who was in the First World War.

In the evening the boys returned to the cemetery and gathered up the flags and are caring for them.

It is the hope of the Legion and Auxiliary that this is the beginning of an annual program for Memorial Day and that every year the Cubs and Scouts will make the placing of wreaths and flags a part of their program.

AT GRADUATION

Mr. and Mrs. Elroy Erickson, sons Dennis and Larry, and Mrs. Mel Brownley and daughter, Vicky, son-in-law and daughters of Mr. and Mrs. George McDonald of Port Orford, were visitors at the home of their parents over the weekend to attend the high school graduation exercises for their brother, Bill McDonald.

CUB SCOUT AWARDS

Cub Scout Pack 252 held an awards meeting in the Langlois cafeteria last week. The theme for Den 1 was "Davy Jones' Locker" and for the Weblos was "Forester."

Blair Barklow was awarded the silver arrow on his Bear badge.

Den 1 presented a shadow puppet skit on "Deep Sea Animals" and at a candle ceremony the following Webelos were presented awards: Darrell Rosenberry, Forester award; Bobby Hildebrand, athletic, artist, engineer, naturalist and forester awards; Greg Wilcox, forester and artist; Bruce Neilson, scholar, forester and a certificate of graduation as he is going into the Boy Scouts.

Bobby Hildebrand, Greg Wilcox and Bruce Neilson were given Webelos badges. They described what they had done to earn the badges, part of which was the wall display in forestry which showed the kinds of wood used in buildings in this area.

GO FISHING

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pickle and five children, and Royce Pennington of Langlois went fishing over last weekend in the Klamath River in Oregon, about three hours drive from Ashland. They report that they had the best luck of their lives and are going again this weekend. The weather was very warm but the fish bit in the middle of the day anyway and the children found it most pleasant to spend their time in the water, too.

IN TENNESSEE

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Reese and daughter, Debbie, of Port Orford, are vacationing in Tennessee, visiting Reese's relatives.

HENRY GUESTS

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lute Henry in Langlois were Wilfred Laird of Bandon, Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Lewis of Springfield and Ruth McDonald and Mr. and Mrs. John Orr of Coos Bay.

FROM SEATTLE

Beatrice Noble of Seattle, visited friends in Langlois last week. She is a former resident of the community.

FAMILY HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Holm, new Superintendent of Western States Plywood of Port Orford, and their children have moved from Tillamook and are living in the Don Mechals home.

SISTER VISITS

The brother-in-law and sister of Herb Geer of Langlois, Mr. and Mrs. John Guedon, came for a visit on June 3 which was the Geers' 30th wedding anniversary. They stayed for three days in the North Curry city.

AT GRADUATION

Mrs. Bill Hefner and son, Tony, went to Corvallis last Sunday, June 2, to see her brother, Joe Stonecypher, graduate from Oregon State University. His major was Aeronautical Engineering and he will be going to Hartford, Conn., where he has a job with the Pratt Whitney Company.

Back Acres Install

Back Acres Garden Club met on June 5 at the home of Hazel McKenzie in Port Orford with Verena Noble as co-hostess.

Walter Schroeder, County Extension Agent for Curry County, was the speaker and talked on "Pruning Flowering Shrubs" and showed a film on the subject.

Mary Anderson was welcomed into the Club as a new member and was presented with an azalea.

It was announced that the $100.00 Club scholarship had been given to Terry Sweeney at the commencement program last Sunday night.

New officers were installed and presented with corsages by outgoing president, Evelyn MacDonald, who then turned the meeting over to the new president, Thelma Foster.

HOST PARTY

Last Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thomas of Port Orford had a party in their home honoring Mrs. Bernie Lawrence from Eugene, Bernice Russell of Los Angeles, Calif., and Kara MacDonald from Sunnyvale, Calif. They had planned a cook-out but because of weather conditions had it indoors and asked the following friends to be their guests at the occasion: Mr. and Mrs. Ariel MacDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Smith, Mrs. Roy Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Blagdon, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Newkirk, and Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Corbin from Gold Beach.

LOCAL CUB SCOUTS helped decorate graves at Masonic Cemetery Memorial Day. With them is Mrs. Bob Meyer.

SON, FAMILY VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. Odell Flake of Coast Guard hill were glad last week to have their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Tim Flake and two sons, from Forest Grove, home for a visit from Thursday to Sunday and were most pleasantly surprised to have Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Crumrines from Tillamook come to visit too.

The Crumrines are the parents-in-law of Mrs. Bill Crumrine, daughter of the Flakes, who with her children is living with them while her husband is in Vietnam.

Word from Bill Crumrine is that he hopes to be home in October instead of the later date that was first given to him.

TAKES POSITION

Terrel Repp, who has been Principal of the Langlois Elementary schools for the past two years, has accepted a similar position with the schools at Glendale, and will be moving his family to that city about July 1. He came to Langlois from the David Douglas District near Portland and his daughter, Pamela, graduated from Pacific High School in 1967. His youngest daughter, Teri Sue, will be in the sixth grade next year and the two oldest daughters have been attending George Fox College in Newberg, as well as Pamela.

PLAN TRAIL RIDE

The "Trailriders" Langlois 4H club met at the Paul Smith home on Wednesday evening and discussed the forthcoming trail ride which will be on June 22. They will have another meeting on June 18 to complete their plans but as of now they plan to go up Floras Creek, pretending they are pioneers (modern style), taking food to be prepared over the open fire and sleeping under the stars (they hope) in sleeping bags. Those at the meeting were Kent Martin, Milt Smith, Tam Hanna, Gail Hefner and Jerita Hefner.

COOK HONORED

Hazel Hofsess will retire from the Langlois schools where she has been head cook for 28 years. She was honored by a School Board dinner on June 3, a Staff dinner on June 4, and a student body party on June 5. The Staff presented her with a beautiful sweater as a gift of appreciation.

SPECIAL PROGRAM

"Latin American Activities" were culminated by the Langlois 6th Grade, taught by Mrs. Frances Everest, on Friday, May 31, with a program to which all the mothers were invited. Mexican songs and reports on Latin America were given by the students and two plays were presented, one of which depicted a Mexican school where the conversation was all in Spanish.

Mothers attending the most interesting program were Mrs. Earl Bess, Mrs. Jack Donaldson and two children, Mrs. Jorgensen, Mrs. William Loshbaugh, Mrs. Robert Shaffar, Mrs. William Storm, Mrs. Dick Strycker and daughter, Mrs. Charles Van Lear and two sons, Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. Glenn Shanton, Mrs. Dale Smith and Mrs. Ralph Cope.

WIN BALL GAME

On Wednesday of last week the faculty of the Langlois Elementary school won the Baseball game from the Eighth Grade with a score of 13 to 4.

IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. Mildred Russell, a longtime teacher in the Port Orford school and one who is retiring this year, is in the McAuley Hospital in Coos Bay and it is expected that she will be there for some time. She would be glad to have visitors and cards and letters from her friends.
