

Heather And Camellias Is Setting For Krick-Knutson Wedding March 15

Before the altar banked with white heather and pink camellias, with large side baskets, William Dean Krick, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Krick, Sr., of Port Orford, and Linda Mae Knutson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Knutson of Langlois, were married on March 15 at 7:30 p.m. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Don Parsons in the Zion Lutheran Church in Port Orford after the organ prelude by Connie Cox and the songs, "I Love You Truly," and "The Lord's Prayer" sung by Wayne Merrill.

The bridal gown was of sequined Chantilly lace and silk organza, with Empire waistline over a full A-line skirt, which flowed back in a full chapel train caught at the shoulders with self-fabric bows. The hemline and train were deeply bordered with the lace. The fingertip veil of sequined silk illusion drifted from a satin bridal crown, overlaid with lace and embroidered with seed pearls. The veil and crown were made by the groom's mother.

The bride carried a cascade of white chrysanthemums with satin bows and streamers and a removable corsage of two large white orchids for her going-away suit.

The bride was given away by her father, and her maid of honor was Kathy Krick who wore a floor length princess dress of deep pink Saki linen with pale pink sash and large back bow of velvet. Her headpiece was of nylon and pearl leaves, with face veil, and she carried a white candle with a swirl of apple blossoms.

Mrs. Greg Crew and Gayle Knutson were bridesmaids and their dresses were the same as the maid of honor. They carried pink candles.

Nick Marsh was best man, and ushers were Bob Fry, Gordon Knutson and Doug Cope.

The groom is a 1968 graduate of Pacific High School and is currently employed by Cape Fisheries in Port Orford. The bride is a senior at Pacific High.

For her going-away outfit the new Mrs. Krick chose a turquoise and white suit with white accessories and the orchid corsage from her bouquet.

The wedding reception was held in the church social hall which was decorated with large arrangements of ornamental cherry blossoms on the piano, apple blossoms on crystal candleholders with pink candles, a grouping of pink Swedish candles on the guest registry table and pink candles at the windows caught by white wedding bells.

Gloria Knutson and Connie Higgins cut and served the cake which was baked and decorated by the groom's mother. Karen Erlanson poured coffee and Mrs. Francis Schrader served the punch. Guests were registered by Peggy Jensen and Mrs. Nick Marsh and Mrs. James Gohsen presided at the gift table.

The bride's mother wore a dress of aqua-mint linen with champagne accessories and a corsage of pink gladioli. The groom's mother wore an ice-blue lace coat ensemble with champagne accessories and a corsage of pink gladioli.

The corsages for the grandmothers, those serving at the reception, apple blossoms for the bridesmaids, also the boutonnières for the men were created of wood fibers by Mrs. Ernest Hatmaker. The groom's cake and rice were passed out by Barbie and Sharon Coyne.

The dresses of the attendants were made by their mothers.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Flossie Knutson and daughters, Junction City; Mrs. Bruce Knutson and Jimmy, Harrisburg; Mrs. Ella Neal, Tillamook; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Fitch and family, Mrs. Paul Brazil, Mr. and Mrs. Barry Winters and Mr. and Mrs. Greg Crew, all of Bandon; Mrs. Robert Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Davies, Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Greig and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett W. Rider, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rider, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Schrader, all of Coos Bay; Mr. and Mrs. Harold McCue, William Couch, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Schroeder, Coquille; Karen Erlanson, Florence; Mr. and Mrs. Alvin McDonald and family and Stephanie Miller of Gold Beach; Sherri Pfeiffer, Gordon Knutson, Gloria Knutson and Mr. and Mrs. James Klem, Portland; Doug Cope and Dennis Keffer, Eugene.

The newlyweds are at home on Coast Guard Hill following a honeymoon trip to Salishan Lodge, Astoria and Portland.

IN EUGENE
Mr. and Mrs. Clark Slocum of Floras Lake went to Eugene on Friday of last week to take their son, Bruce, and her mother, Mrs. Florence Butcher, to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Anderson. They went after Bruce on Friday to return him to Langlois but Mrs. Butcher stayed in Eugene until Sunday when her granddaughter and grandson, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, took her to Portland to take the plane for her home in Norwalk, Calif. She has been with the Slocums since Christmas and hopes to return in April or May to miss the hot California summer. Mrs. Anderson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Slocum.

VISITS MOTHER

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Barklow went to Myrtle Point on Sunday to see her mother, Mrs. T. G. Sumerlin, who had a slight case of the flu.

MRS FORTY VISITS

Josie Forty returned to Port Orford after spending more than three weeks visiting in Eugene, Junction City, Corvallis and Albany. She visited friends, Mr.

and Mrs. Cliff Winningham at Junction City and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Anderson in Corvallis. In Albany she visited her son and family, the Kenneth Fortys, and then went to Eugene to visit her niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Moore. While there she had the flu very hard, but she says that was a good place to have it because her doctor is there.

On Monday Mr. and Mrs. James Forty met her at the Coos Bay Airport to return her to Port Orford.

DAUGHTER HOME

Home for spring vacation and to recuperate from major surgery is Connie Guerin of Langlois. She is attending Southern Oregon College in Ashland. Guests of Freddie and Rita Guerin during spring vacation were Kevin and Susan Atling from Fall Creek.

VISITS PRESTONS

Susan Hayden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Preston of Port Orford, and two daughters, Tami and Toni, from Albany, visited at the Preston home during spring vacation. Jack Preston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Preston, came home on Thursday and is spending this week, which is college vacation, in Port Orford. He is attending college in Astoria.

Mrs. Erma Hague, mother of Mrs. Preston who has been visiting for three months at the home of her son Jack and family in Walla Walla, Wash., has returned to Port Orford.

HOME FROM COLLEGE

Doug Cope of Langlois and a friend, Dennis Keffer, were home last weekend from Eugene. He planned to be home for the entire week of spring vacation.

VISIT FRIENDS

Mrs. Charles Caughell from Shore Pines at North Bend visited friends in Langlois on Tuesday of last week.

BUYS BUSINESS

On March 10 Willie Smith of Denmark took over the sand and gravel business and equipment of Elton Dwire of Sixes, having purchased it from him. Mrs. Smith will keep the Phillips 66 service station at Denmark open for business.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Boone (Ruby Hatmaker) and son, Bobby have returned from Louisville, Miss., to visit relatives and friends in Langlois. They are planning to stay in Oregon.
