ATTEND DAUGHTER'S WEDDING IN CALIFORNIA

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McLeod made a trip to the Los Angeles area recently to attend the wedding of their daughter Heather Ann McLeod to Timothy W. Ah Sing, where they were joined by Tim's parents from Hilo, Hawaii.

Both sets of parents and their children did a lot of sight seeing, notably an afternoon at the Bursch Gardens. On their return trip the McLeods visited the Hearst Castle at San Simeon, which they enjoyed very much.

On the way down they visited their son Roderick McLeod and family at Anderson and on the way home they were overnight guests of his aunt Mrs. Jennie Stager at Vallejo and were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Caldwell at Williams, Calif.

MARRIED IN GRANTS PASS

Holly Rosalie McLeod, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McLeod of Langlois was married August 27 to Larry M.

Rhodes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rhodes of Port Orford. The couple exchanged vows and rings in a Christadelphian ceremony in the Isaak Walton Hall in Grants Pass, the meeting place of the Christadelphian community of the Rogue Valley. Mr. Harley Young of the Glendale Christadelphian Ecclesia of Glendale, Calif., officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor length white gown of organza over faille, made with an empire waist and short sleeves. It was ornamented with three panels of embroidery laced with satin ribbon, and embroidery edged the neckline and sleeves. Her floor length veil was also edged with a band of embroidery. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and yellow carnations. Her bridesmaid was her twin sister Heather McLeod, who wore a dress of yellow crepe with an overbodice and long sleeves of yellow sheer embroidered with white and yellow flowers. She wore a yellow lace picture hat and carried a bouquet of white carnations and yellow glads. The groom's best man was Timothy Ah Sing.

A reception was held at the Isaak Walton Hall following the ceremony. The couple honeymooned at the ranch home of the bride's parents.
