MANY FRIENDS VISIT MOORES

Sunday afternoon Mrs. Verena Holgum of Port Orford visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Moore. She brought with her several different kinds of cake for them to sample from the Zion Lutheran Church birthday celebration which the Moores were unable to attend.

Visiting the Moores on Tuesday were Pastor Larry Rorem and son Mark of Port Orford.

On Wednesday afternoon Randy Decker visited at the Moore home bringing with him a basket of goodies. They enjoyed his talk of his recent trip to Europe. He told of riding on a passenger train which boarded a huge ferry to cross the sound from Sweden to Denmark. The ferry was complete with a restaurant on the top floor.

E.S.A. DONATES TO CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

An E.S.A. meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Thelma Belcher on Wednesday evening, Feb. 13. Co-hostess was Patty Sweet who gave an educational program on growing herbs in your own garden. She gave samples to each lady and demonstrated the care and tending of their many uses.

Refreshments of cake, ice cream and punch were served.

Cimaglio and daughter of San Jose, son Mr. and Mrs. Pat Wrigglesworth at Los Gatos and many other friends and relatives in parts of California.

ATTEND PITA SHOOT

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Phillips spent last weekend in the Eugene and Cottage Grove area. On Saturday and Sunday they attended the PITA trap shoot at the Cottage Grove gun club. While they were gone his mother Mrs. J. B. Phillips stayed with her sister Mrs. Hazel Hofess and Kay McPherson stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Dick Everest and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Shepherd and family were houseguests over the weekend in Sutherlin at the home of friends Mr. and Mrs. Daro Handy. On Saturday and Sunday they all attended the PITA shoot in Cottage Grove.

SIXES GRANGE

At the regular meeting of the Sixes Grange on Saturday evening, a response to Sixes Grange's resolution to stop the infestation of the tussock moth was read from Senator Hatfield in which he thanked the grange for their support and assured us he was working on the problem and doing all possible to stop the waste of our timber. The resolution was sent to our four congressmen, and two U.S. Senators urging action to stop the infestation of the tussock moth and to date favorable replies have been received from members of Congress Wendell Wyatt and Edith Green and Senator Hatfield. Congressman Dellenback of this district has made no reply as of this date.

Agricultural chairman Bob Billings presented information showing that wheat prices would have to be $35 or $40 a bushel to warrant bread selling at $1 a loaf.

Women's Activity Committee of Sixes Grange headed by Katherine Rice chairman and ably assisted by several other women wish to thank all those who attended the Grange family breakfast on Sunday morning, Feb. 10. Announcements of another breakfast will be made at a later date. The grange wishes to thank the television station KCBY and radio station KWRQ for their generous help in advertising the breakfast.

Replacing the grange roof will probably take place after the rainy season is over. Master Brooks spoke of the world condition and said the famine throughout the world is because of the population growth in the world and the world would not be able to keep up in the food production.

At the close of the meeting they held a cake walk with the proceeds to go to help the deaf, a grange project.

Those reported as being ill were Mr. and Mrs. Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Pomeroy and Audrey Gebauer.

Birthday Greetings went to Adelbert Fryer.

FLORAS WILLOW CLUB SURPRISES MRS. MANNING

Fourteen members were present at the Floras Willow Club meeting on Feb. 14. Docta Sweet Manning was honored at the meeting with a wedding cake baked and decorated by Diane Rossignol. The club surprised her with a lovely fruit bowl as a present.
