Pirates Are In First

The Langlois teams were two tight, evenly matched ball clubs with the Yankees getting a slight edge in the final standings. The Yankees, under the direction of Blair Barklow, came from an 0-2 start to become a real contender before losing their last 2 games. Tim Hoover and Brad Harper both showed strong pitching abilities and in the games this writer saw, Bryce Barklow and Mike Adams and Darrell Pickle all hit the ball well. Alan Foster, Steve Goddard, Joe Brown, John Shepard, Jeff Adams, Gary Pickle, Larry Pickle, and Mich Noah all played valuable roles in the Yankees success.

The Dodgers, under Bill Hoover and Jon English, created quite a scare starting out winning their first 3 games, but vacations and tough luck saw them finish losing their last six. Carl Hoover was a stronghold on the mound and Steve Roberts, who has been playing for years, held down the catchers job with poise. Tom Owen showed he had a big bat time and again with long doubles or a home-run. Mark Dinsmore, Dennis Bowman, Ken Owen, Chuck Owen, Bobbie Webb, Jimmy Webb, Pat Kane, Todd Chase and David Daughill all played well and gained valuable experience. This season saw many exciting games and players and fans alike can agree it was well worth the effort. The league was well matched with every game anybody's. Congratulations to those players who stuck it out and gave their 100 per cent. We hope to see even more enthusiasm next year. Players are reminded to turn in their uniforms as soon as possible to their coaches.

The other three teams in the league all finished in a tight bunch and demonstrated why with their unpredictable play. The Reds had some outstanding hitting from Ed Dimmick and Jeff Peabody but had trouble finding a second pitcher until near the end of the season they discovered Buddy Grant who in his last outing pitched a 3 run game. Tim Royal and Don Garnand both provided good defense at catcher. David Naiman, Kevin House, Talmadge Justice, Tommy Kadiebach, Wayne Prather, Tim Dimmick, Dale Thomas, Ronnie Kurka and Kim Rhodes rounded out the Reds squad. Kim proved girls are more than capable at participating in the league as she was one of the better 10 year olds playing.
