ANNUAL PICNIC WAS HELD

The Wagner-Hayes-Gant annual picnic was held on July 27 at Powers County Park. Over 50 persons attended and as usual the tables were loaded with good food. The restored pioneer Wagner house at Powers was opened for visiting. Special recognition was given to the oldest and youngest attending the picnic. Honors for the oldest man went to Albert Britton, 85, of Denmark, oldest of Myrtle Point, youngest boy was Curtis Gant, age 2 of Eugene, and youngest girl was Christy Yensen, 5 years old, from Orange, Calif.

Special recognition was also given to Christy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Yensen for most miles (over 900) traveled to attend the picnic.

After all was settle down, president Monty Lund conducted a business meeting. The same officers were elected for the coming year: Lund, president; Ollie Britton, vice president; Esther Lancaster, treasurer and Clarence Wagner, secretary. The 1976 picnic was voted to be held at Bullards Beach State Park at Bandon.

DAUGHTER VISITS

Visiting Mrs. Madeleine Carey last week were her daughter, Mrs. Rena Daniel, and son Jerry from Redwood Valley.

HATMAKERS HAVE VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hatmaker enjoyed the recent two-day visit of their daughter Mrs. Dennis Rice and Shannon of Central Point and of two nieces, Julie and Heidi Rice from California.

ARTIFACTS DISPLAYED

An arrowhead and Indian artifacts collection belonging to Jean Strain is on display at the public library. This interesting collection consists of mule ear type, leaf shape and side and corner notched arrowheads. Also displayed are a game ball, antler wedges and bone chisels, arrow shaft smoothers, bone awl and needles and ornaments made from metal and bone. Many helpful books are also displayed to aid the viewer in identifying the artifacts and describing their uses.

BRITTONS HAVE COMPANY

Visiting the Albert Brittons for several days were their daughter and son-in-law Mary and Robert Yensen and daughter Christy Lee from Orange, Calif. The Brittons' son Burt and his family also visited for a few days. Burt lives at San Jose, Calif. and reported it was very hot down there and he enjoyed the Oregon climate. Mrs. Imogene Powrie from Myrtle Point visited the Brittons while her sister Mary was visiting her folks.

TRAVELED TO CENTRALIA

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Lang traveled to Centralia, Wash. four days last week to visit with their children and families. On the way they stopped at Corvallis to visit Mr. and Mrs. Bob Boucher and family. At Centralia they enjoyed visiting with daughters Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Shannon and Dr. and Mrs. Gerald Jacobs and children. They also saw their son Louis Lang. On the return trip they stopped at Scappoose to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lang and family.

JENSENS HAVE GUESTS

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jensen recently were their daughter Mr. and Mrs. Dale Snyder of Portland and his parents Mr. and Mrs. Stan Rubel of Montana.

NEW APPROACH TO CHILDBIRTH

The Langlois Library has received an exceptionally fine book, Birth Without Violence, written by Dr. Frederick Leboyer, a distinguished French obstetrician. In his book Dr. Leboyer provides a simple but revolutionary new approach to childbirth. Delivering some 10,000 babies in the traditional way caused Leboyer to reflect on the needless discomfort that modern medical techniques might inflict on the newborn; loud noises, brilliant lights and a spine jerking upside down dangle. Dr. Leboyer now delivered 1,000 more babies in the manner his book described; a quiet room, subdued lighting, placing the newborn on the mother's warm abdomen for a few minutes rest, then cutting the cord and placing the infant in a tepid bath. The newborn is quietly and lovingly welcomed into the world.

NEW BOOKS ARE INFORMATIVE

Several helpful books have recently arrived at the public library. "Quick and Easy Quilting" by Bonnie Leman is a complete guide to no-frame quilting. It offers ready to cut patterns for fashion fun, home decorating and gifts. "A Guide to Natural Cosmetics" by Connie Krochmal offers many formulas for cosmetics. "Home Book of Taxidermy and Tanning" by Gerald J. Grantz is the amateur's primer on mounting fish, birds, animals, trophies and the tanning and care of hides.

CAMPING TRIP ENJOYED

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Caughell and son David, Mr. and Mrs. Clint Caughell and son Randy of Coos Bay and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Caughell of Sutherlin, enjoyed a recent weekend at Edison Butte up Floras Creek. They camped and slept under the stars. Their fun weekend was interrupted by accidents however. Randy suffered a compound fracture of an arm and required hospitalization. Another member of the camping party received a scalp laceration in a mishap.

FIRST AID CLASS TO BE HELD

A first aid class will be held in the Langlois Fire Hall sometime this fall. This will be a multi-media class, 8 hours, completed in one day. Upon completion of this class you will received a first aid card, valid for three years.

"We hope to schedule this class for a Saturday so that more may attend. Ideally the class should be 15 or 20 persons," said a spokesman. A $5 fee per person is required.

For further information call the Art Sypher residence at 348-2352.

Northern Curry Trophy Winners

Learning by doing is a very important part of 4-H club work. Close to 225 4-H exhibitors did some of this learning by doing by taking part in the 1975 Curry County Fair. All of them were winners by virtue of having taken a step to develop their leadership ability and skills in their selected projects.

Those who excelled in their work were awarded trophies or merchandise certificates by various individuals or business organizations. These trophy winners from north Curry included:

Goat Showman Champion--Gayle Hefner, Port Orford.

Junior Horseman--Brenda Barklow, Langlois.

Horse Psychology--Junior--Brenda Barklow, Langlois.

Grand Champion Showmanship--Reserve Champion--Gayle Hefner, Port Orford.

Bachelor Clothing--Bryce Barklow, Langlois.

SON GOES HOME

After spending the past three weeks in Port Orford visiting at the home of his mother, Mrs. Seneva Lindberg, and sister, Marie Barrington and families, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lindberg left for their home in Denning, New Mexico. They were accompanied by their three children, Stephan, David, and Leisa. When leaving they drove by way of Salem to visit with his sister, Lucille Douglas and her son Doug.

A brother of his, Eddie, also lives in Denning. Both men were in the service and Eddie moved to Denning and started a barber shop. He saw many people who found so many beautiful agates that he quit the barbershop and started a rock business. Later he was joined by his brother, Bill, and they now operate a huge rock business. Eddie hasn't been home in twenty years.

FLOATS ARE WINNERS

Port Orford residents are very proud of the number of people who entered exhibits in the Curry County Fair and who took part in several floats in the parade. The Jetty Jubilee queen, Josie Forty, and two attendants, Noma Thomas and Margaret Meyer, rode on the RSVP float which was an old wagon, with bales of hay and many other old time gimmicks. The three ladies were dressed in their old fashioned dresses with bonnets and rode on the hay.

Another float, sponsored by the Historical Society, was composed of four pictures that were framed. One of the pictures was portrayed by Seneva Lindberg, daughter Marie Barrington and granddaughter Donna, making a picture of three generations. This float received the Sweepstakes prize and first prize and the RSVP took the second high prize.

FIRST PIE GIVEN

All are congratulating Mrs. Bob Thomas (Noma) who received a beautiful electric stove given by Schroeders Furniture of Gold Beach. She has it all installed. She baked the best judged apple pie out of many entries. The first of last week she baked an apple pie in the new oven and presented it to Mr. and Mrs. Ethan Clark explaining to them that this was the first pie baked in her new oven.

DEATH LEARNED

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wallace received word last Monday of the death of his brother-in-law, Herbert Ross of Ocean Shores, Wash. His death was very sudden from a heart attack. He and his wife were in attendance at a family reunion held during the fourth of July at the Wallace home.

FRIEND VISITS

Hilda Rogers of Greenwich Village, New York, is spending three weeks as a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dalen. She works at the New York Repertory Theatre. She is a friend of the Dalens.

IN PORTLAND

Mrs. Nick Marsh spent the past weekend in Portland with her aunt.

FROM TILLAMOOK

Mr. and Mrs. John Werner of Tillamook dropped in to see Josie Forty last Monday evening. Mr. Werner was a roomer at the home of Mrs. Forty at one time.

SISTER VISITS

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Jewell and family was Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Phillips and children of Milwaukie from Friday through Monday last week. Whie here the families enjoyed some picnicing. Mrs. Phillips is a sister of Mrs. Jewell.

OUT OF HOSPITAL

Mrs. Lola Windmaiser returned to her home Monday evening after spending several weeks in the Providence hospital undergoing tests, x-rays, and therapy. She was accompanied by her brother, "Dutch" Bryant who remained with her for several days.

GRANDDAUGHTER VISITS

A guest at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Elden Paine, has been Sandy Anderson, for the past month. Her mother, Elaine Anderson, and sister Roberta came to take her home last week.

TO GOLD BEACH

Mrs. Josie Forty spend last Saturday evening in Gold Beach at the home of a friend, Mrs. Velma Simpson. She accompanied Mrs. Simpson to the Sunset Inn that evening and wore her queen's costume as queen of the Jetty Jubilee.
