Chief's note: Thanks to everyone who has signed the crosswalk request for Oregon Department of Transportation.

I collected all of them and thanks to the following business's help we have 357 signatures to present to Oregon Department of Transportation: Downtown Fun Zone, McNair Hardware, Camp Blanco RV Park, Kar Kare Auto Parts, Paradise Café and Highway 101 Liquor. Thanks to all your help, hopefully we will be able to get the crosswalks installed at 20th, 19th, 18th, and 15th Streets to help keep our pedestrians safe and slow down traffic flow.

Please call Christine Richardson at (541) 332-0381 for more information on the classes, the meeting place in Port Orford, or the times and locations of the classes being held in Coos Bay.

'Love Monkeys' ponder blue bananas
Yes, that's right. On Father's Day, 13 Port Orford Love Monkeys for Peace converged on Highway 101 just south of town and spent a couple hours gathering up other peoples' trash. Big bags of other peoples' trash. But an unusual and interesting thing occurred. Scattered along both sides of the highway, atop posts and cairns, were bananas wrapped with blue tape. As you can imagine the Love Monkeys couldn't resist the bananas, because we love 'em. One by one we tore the blue tape off the bananas and found typed messages from William Shakespeare, Wendell Barry, Mary Oliver, Sharon Olds, George Saunders, Richard Willbur, Charles Bukowski, Billy Collins, and many others. We read those profound words as we moved along the highway picking up the real trash. That made our job so much easier. Who could have done this, we all asked? Obviously someone who likes to have "phun." If anyone saw anything, please contact our gorilla, as we want the perpetrator to join the Port Orford Love Monkeys for Peace.

Tips on sewer and septic systems
Whether the property is connected to a city sewer, septic system or other on-site wastewater treatment system is simply: Adult, Youth, and Mixed. This year, for the first time, small monetary prizes will be awarded — from $5 to $20 in each category. There will also be a handsome People's Choice trophy presented. Everyone's a winner at this festival with ribbons and prizes for all.
Official registration and starting time is 7 a.m. on the Fourth, with judges awarding by 10. Participants are limited to using water, sand, and materials found in nature.
Those interested in learning sand sculpting skills may enjoy these new books for reference at the library: "Sand Creatures and Castles" by Reed and "The Art of Sandcasting" by Siebert.
Sand sculpture "how-to" videos will also be shown in the Council Chamber, 6:30 – 7:15 p.m.: Beginner techniques, Thursday, June 26; and intermediate skills, Friday, the 27th.
For those attending the Jubilee, be sure to check out the Sand Sculpture Event in the morning; don't wait until after high tide!
Painting raffle is ongoing
Community Counts!
Team Jubilee has received lots of support from several community members and this week Gail Finn of Sixes has graciously donated a wonderful painting of last year's fireworks at Battle Rock Park.
We encourage everyone to come down to Sterling Bank and have a look-see. Quite simply, this painting will make you smile.
Raffle tickets can be purchased at the 101 Liquor/Jewelry Store. $5 per ticket or 3 for $10.
Don't miss this chance to own this delightful piece of folkart.
