Lakeside man arrested for DUII on adult sized tricycle

A Lakeside-area man was arrested Friday afternoon by Oregon State Police (OSP) after he was cautioned and then later spotted riding an adult sized tricycle under the influence of alcohol on an area street.

On October 3, 2008 at approximately 2 p.m. OSP Trooper Dave Timm contacted a group of intoxicated people at Tenmile Lakes County Park. One of the individuals identified as William David Bjorkquist, age 58, from Lakeside, told Trooper Timm he was going to ride his purple “Miami Sun” adult sized tricycle home. Trooper Timm told him not to ride the tricycle because of his obvious intoxicated condition. Bjorkquist agreed not to ride as his friends said they would help him push it home.
