POAC news: Lots of events coming

By Elaine Roemen
For the PON

If you have experienced Kelly Thibodeaux and Etouffee then you know their jazzy, rhythmic Cajun music is full of life, the kind you can't resist dancing to. On Valentines Day we are throwing a Mardi Gras Dinner Dance party complete with Etouffee's live music, a scrumptious New Orleans menu cooked up by Julie Hawthorne, Laurie Prouty and Joyce Kinney: jambalaya, corn bread, and all the fixin's, like pecan pie and King cakes. Beer and wine will be available.

To come in style to this "masquerade friendly" event, there will be two Mask workshops at the POAC office on January 31 and February 7th. (Of course you don't have to wear a mask, if you are the serious type.) You can buy tickets for the dinner dance, $20, at the Fun Zone ($25 at the door). This is a fundraiser for the Port Orford Arts Council to help provide Port Orford with art and cultural events throughout the coming year. A grant from the Kinsman Foundation helps in part to sponsor this festive event.

Isabella Brock, Curry County Tax Collector, would like to remind taxpayers that the second trimester payments for the 2008/2009 tax year are being mailed out this week.

The due date is February 17, 2009. Taxpayers should make sure payments are postmarked by the due date to avoid additional interest charges.

Taxpayers who wish a printed receipt should send a

of North County, as it will provide additional water supply in areas that are not hydrated.

We began the month of December with our Holiday party. We invite the families of our firefighters and ambulance personnel. This is a time for us to show our appreciation for all the sacrifices our families make on our behalf. When we receive a page, we drop whatever we are doing and instantly respond to our call. Sometimes we do not return for six or more hours. After a long call, we still have several hours of cleanup and retrofitting our equipment so we are ready to respond to the next call. We know these hours can be long for our families and truly appreciate their patience. This party is an opportunity for us all to get together, enjoy a meal, and spend time relaxing.

It is also when we announced our Firefighter of the Year. This year our deserving firefighter is Jim Sigman. He received a special jacket with this designation.

This quarter we responded to a variety of difficult and demanding calls. Our commitment to training and safety has resulted in excellent responses. We can never predict what type of call we will have, nor exactly what will be needed. We continue to be fortunate to train with Sixes and Langlois Fire, enabling great mutual aid responses when necessary. In small communities, a multi-agency response is a great asset. We are grateful for the excellent response from Port Orford Community Ambulance, Curry County Deputies, and the State Police as well.

We look forward to the upcoming quarter. We expect to spend some of our training time on maintaining our necessary recertification for State requirements. This will include classes in CPR, Bloodborne Pathogens, Hazmat driver training, etc. We also expect to continue training with Sixes and Langlois Fire in mutual aid responses. We also plan on training with Port Orford Community Ambulance and Port Orford Police Department. We are all frequently on incidents together and have seen how training together results in the best and safest possible outcome.

Our Extrication tools were just serviced and remain in excellent condition, and we expect to train extensively with them, hopefully with some instructors from other agencies. Our priority remains the safety of our firefighters, responders, and community.

We look forward to training with some new volunteers. If you are interested in joining the Port Orford Volunteer Fire Department, please call Chief Gayle Wilcox at 332-0445. We are always hoping to add committed men and women to our roster of volunteers. We are honored and proud to serve.

Respectfully submitted,

Gayle Wilcox
Chief, Port Orford Volunteer Fire Department

Thank a fire fighter

Oregon's first Fire Service Appreciation Day will be Sunday, Jan. 27.

The Oregon Legislature has established the day to "honor all those in the Oregon fire service who work to save lives and property, from firefighters who risk their safety and well-being in the course of their duties to the unsung heroes of fire prevention, education, and public information working behind the scenes."

The date was chosen because the first fire company in the U.S. was organized in Boston on Jan. 27, 1678.

The PON would like to take this opportunity to thank all the members of the Port Orford, Volunteer Fire Department, the Sixes Rural Fire Department, the Langlois Fire Department, and the Coos Forest Protective Association for all their hard work and sacrifice.

Hughes House seeks help

In 2008 Living History was presented on four different days to delighted visitors at historic Hughes House. The Friends of Cape Blanco would like to expand the program during the summer of 2009, perhaps twice a month during June, July, and August.

We are in need of a few women who would be able to devote the time necessary to learn a short script, rehearse, and spend a day (or more than one day) presenting the skit at Hughes House. Needed are a woman or two close to age 70 to portray Jane Hughes and two or three women close to age 30 to portray Annie Hughes, Jane's daughter-in-law. If we have at least two women for each character, we will have a backup in case someone can't be present on the day of a planned presentation. Costumes are provided. If interested, please call Shirley or Milt Nelson at 332-9002.

Port Orford RV Village featured in Good Sam Club's magazine

The Port Orford RV Village is featured in an RV park profile in the January 2009 issue of the Good Sam Club's Highways magazine. The Good Sam Club bills itself as "The World's Largest RV Community," and Highways is sent to close to a million RV owners every month.

Owners Tim and Cindy Pogwizd were interviewed for the article, which tells how the Pogwizds came to own Port Orford RV Village, focuses on its amenities, and discusses many of the nearby attractions and activities available to RVers staying there. The Pogwizds had their best year in terms of numbers of visitors in 2008, despite the high price of gas.

The facility received a 24.5 (out of 30 possible points) rating from Trailer Life Directory, which rates RV parks on a triple rating basis that covers completeness of facilities, cleanliness and physical characteristics of restrooms and showers, and visual appeal and environmental quality.

Tim Pogwizd says that so far he has received 20 requests for information as a result of the article, which also briefly covers other facilities in and near Port Orford, including Camp Blanco RV Park and Elk River RV Park.

To read the article, type "Port Orford RV Village Good Sam article" into your computer's browser, then click on "Highways Magazine article" at the top of the displayed results, or type <http://www.goodsamclub.com/rvcentral/HighwaysDetails.aspx?pageID=488&issueID=938> into your address bar.

'Formula for Change'

I came across this little "How to plant your garden" formula, which certainly can be related to renewing our thinking renewal, which will allow unlimited possibilities.

- Plant three rows of peas:
 1. Peace of mind
 2. Peace of heart
 3. Peace of soul
- Plant four rows of squash:
 1. Squash gossip
 2. Squash indifference
 3. Squash grumbling
 4. Squash selfishness

Plant four rows of lettuce:

1. Let tuce be faithful
 2. Let tuce be kind
 3. Let tuce be patient
 4. Let tuce really love one another
- No garden is without turnips:
1. Tum ip for meetings
 2. Tum ip for service
 3. Tum ip to help one another
- To conclude our garden simply add thyme

1. Thyme for each other
2. Thyme for family
3. Thyme for friends

Water freely with patience and cultivate with Love. There is much we will harvest from our garden because we reap what we sow. In our New World shall we all renew our thinking each day within each situation?
