POETRY CORNER

Port Orford
Port Orford,
You are the town that time forgot,
and the artists discovered.

Thielen's "Lemmings."
Pressed up against the coast as far as we can go.

Too afraid to jump you know!
(Can lemmings live on bread and ART alone?)

Enticing Enigma.
Flirtatious fantasy.

Ebbing and flowing.
The secret is in the seeking

The answer comes through exploring.
Artists are explorers!

Port Orford,
You have captured the creative heart of a tribe
searching for its name.

Not quite sure of where you're going...
and what you want to be when you get there.

I love you, Port Orford!
— by Nella Abbott

It Ain't Easy
It ain't easy, being an older guy
The gals nowadays expect too much
It sure ain't like it used to be
When they swooned at just a touch

When they fainted with just a little smooch
Blushed when you kissed their eye
Shed a tear when you kissed their ear
Or cried when you said "Bye-bye"

To get by now you need a PHD
In the techniques of romance
If you want to get a girl for yourself
If want to stand a chance

Now you're got to be rich or downright good-looking
You need to own a yacht or fly a plane on high
I tell you folks, it just ain't easy
Being an older guy
— by Gary Carter

Sold Out
A sleepy town with laid back folks
But not this windy, starswept night
People are running here and there
Frantic with stage fright

Grandma Poole is wrapping gifts
Mama Kim is stuffing socks
They've got to get things just right, you know
Before old Santa knocks

They're setting up for a holiday event
For all the world to see
Everyone has a part in the play
Including you and me

Midnight comes, and none too soon
Everyone's in the groove
It took a lot of work and sweat but, at last,
Things are running smooth

By early dawn the stage is set
The play is sold out once again
A sleepy down no more this day
It's Christmas time again
— by Gary Carter

Solace
Deep into the woods I go
The towering trees, row on row
The misted fields, a running deer
The lullaby of a nearby stream I hear

The magic of a newborn day
The beauty of the clouds at play
Solace to a battered soul
Deep, deep into the woods I go
— by Gary Carter

Grief series has begun in G.B

“Healing Grief” is a six-week series designed for individuals who have lost a loved one through death.

Marian Kraai, a Grief Counselor for Curry County Home Health & Hospice will be facilitating each class session that will be held at the Home Health/Hospice office in Gold Beach on Thursdays from 1:30-3 p.m. The classes began January 22 and will run through February 26.

“As we journey toward healing, we must reach out to others who share a commonality of experience and hope” acknowledges Kraai, “It is our desire to share ideas and tools which will be a comfort and support through this journey.”

For further information on the class or to register please contact Marian Kraai or Pattie Slagle at 247-7084

Bay Area tax office moves to Coos Bay

COOS BAY—The North Bend office of the Oregon Department of Revenue has moved to Coos Bay Friday—just in time for tax season.

“We’re moving to better serve taxpayers and provide greater public access for tax assistance,” said Debbie Love-Wagner, Coos Bay office manager.

The former office at 3030 is closed. The Coos Bay office is at 1155 S 5th Street, Suite A. The new office is located in the Coos Bay DMV building.

The office's phone number is 541-266-0217, and business hours are 8 a.m. to noon and 1 p.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Garden Club to meet

The Sunset Garden Club will hold its monthly meeting on Friday, February 6th in Port Orford's Senior Center at 1p.m. Lucas Gershman will give a presentation about which wild plants are edible. Visitors are always welcome.

Library news

The Port Orford Library Friends started the new year with election of officers. Terry Menzel will be President again, joined by Vice-President Pat Rhoades, Secretary Dolores Care and Treasurer Paulianne Balch Rancourt.

The group is busy planning the next book sale coming up March 28 and 29 in the Freedom of Speech Room in the new library. The Friends’ Store is doing very well—showing brisk sales through the end of the year. The Store will feature lots of new items just in time for you to find the perfect Valentine’s Day gift.

The Friends meet at 10:30am the first Tuesday of every month (except June and July), and dues are only $5.00 a year. Come join this hard working group of volunteers who are dedicated to keeping our new library well equipped with everything from kids’ books to new computers.

Help recycle

Join the team! Recyclable items curbside pick-up is on the first and third Thursdays of the month.

Women’s Time Out

Join us for a delicious lunch and fellowship! Bring your husband and friends!

Our speaker, Connie Knapp, tells us how on the raceway of life she learned to deal with disappointment and discovered the way to become a true winner.

Connie husband, Ron, is a world record holder in Motorcycle Drag Racing and Connie was part of his pit crew for over 20 years. Their pit crew won the “Best Appearing Pit Crew” Award with NMRA.

We also have a fantastic program in store! Corinea Napier, Manicure and Pedicure Specialist from Bandon’s Hillside Hair and Nail Studio, will help us learn how to love and care for our nails from hand to toe.

Cost is $10 inclusive. Free childcare. For more information or to make reservations, please call 982-4746 or 332-5133 of email: cobledrcoble@briskweb.net

Reservations are due by Saturday January 31st.

We look forward to welcoming you, your spouse, and your friends!

Women’s Time Out is sponsored by Stonecroft Ministries.

Oregon coast reopens to mussel harvesting

The Oregon Department of Agriculture and the Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife announce the reopening of recreational mussel harvesting from the mouth of the Columbia River to the California border. Shellfish samples taken last week indicate levels of Paralytic Shellfish Poisoning (PSP) toxins have dropped below the alert level. The entire coast has been closed to recreational harvesting of mussels since October 10, 2008.

With the closure lifted, the entire Oregon coast is now open to all recreational shellfish harvesting.

ODA will continue to routinely test for shellfish toxins.

For more information, call ODA's shellfish safety information hotline at (800) 448-2474, the Food Safety Division at (503) 986-4720 or visit the ODA shellfish closures web page at <http://oregon.gov/ODA/FSD/s_hellfish_status.shtml>.

South Coast Writers Conference registration begins

GOLD BEACH — Writers will take advantage of Gold Beach’s natural beauty and inspirational sites, scenes and landscapes again this winter during the 14th-annual South Coast Writers Conference, hosted by Southwestern Oregon Community College and the Gocles.

Timothy Zahn, Keynote Speaker for the Writers Conference, is a popular science fiction writer and author of the Thrawn Trilogy, a Star Wars Expanded Universe series that takes place after the Return of the Jedi. Workshops begin Friday, Feb. 13. For more information call (541) 247-2741.
