The rate adjustment is expected to take place October 1. Special Town Hall meetings are being scheduled in all four areas in August.	The Grand Sponsors for this year’s benefit were All Star Liquors and Elk Valley Rancheria.	Elk Valley Rancheria has been a Grand Sponsor of the event for the last two years.	This new entry requirement brought in over 800 pounds of food and an additional $180, with Hal and Lori donating all leftover food items to help fill the food bank shelves.
The next regularly-scheduled Town Hall meeting is set for July 2 at 7 p.m. at CCEC’s Port Orford office. Members are welcome and encouraged to attend.	All Star Liquors owner, Jed Driggers stated, “We are proud to be a Grand Sponsor of this event, and give back to the community. This has become an annual honor for us - this is the fourth year All Star Liquors has been a Grand Sponsor for this event, benefitting the Brookings-Harbor Food Bank.”	“As we all know, the need to provide food for families and hungry children has grown this year,” stated Stanley J.
