Safety tip: Those of you who ride bicycles should realize that many of the same laws that apply to motor vehicles also apply to bicycles.

Bicyclists must stop at stop signs, must yield to traffic when crossing the roadway, and must obey the rules of the road.
We have had several close calls where the bicyclist did not see a moving vehicle, did not stop for a stop sign, and very nearly got hit by the vehicle.
The few seconds saved is not worth it. Besides, it is a violation of the law, subject to a citation just as it would be with a motor vehicle.
If a bicyclist wishes to use a crosswalk, it is also a requirement that the bike be walked across the street. Otherwise, the bicycle must yield to traffic just as a motor vehicle should.
Please remember to be safe, and take your time. In a collision between a motor vehicle and a bicycle, the bicycle will always get the worst of it.
Please be careful, and stay safe.
