A POTATO ROMANCE
"If I were a farmer boy, or a boy without capital, and wanted an early competency, I'd start right out growing Potatoes," said Henry Schroeder, the Potato king of the Red River Valley, whose story in the John A. Salzer Seed Co.'s Catalogue reads stranger than a romance.
That advice of Mr. Schroeder's, the self-made Potato king, comes from a warm heart, a level head, an active hand, and above all, a successful Potato grower!

Do You Know, Mr. Farmer, there is more money in five acres of Potatoes year in and year out than in anything you can grow on your farm, and the growing of Potatoes now, with present machinery, etc., is easy. It's regular Fourth of July fun!

Signs of Pain.
It is difficult to estimate the degree of pain, but there are certain signs of suffering which are unmistakable—the pinched features, the knotted brow, the rolling eyes with widely dilated pupils, the ashen countenance, the cool and clammy skin, the thready pulse, the increased blood pressure, the hands alternately clenched and opened, the cries and groans and the bodily contortions. All these present a definite picture with which every experienced physician or nurse is familiar.

I chased them out and afterwards Adolph said, "My mother doesn't care ter a long silence I heard Edward say, "I wish I had a nice, dirty mother like yours."—Exchange.

SAVED BY THEIR DEAD

INCIDENT IN THE SERVICE OF FRENCH FOREIGN LEGION.

Soldier Tells How Company of Twelve Men Held a Blockhouse Against the Enemy, and of the Ruse They Employed.

In "Life in the Legion," a soldier's story of his five years' service in the French Foreign Legion by Frederick Martyn (Charles Scribner's Sons), a soldier tells the writer how the theft of a general's clothing caused him to win a medal. He had been on guard and as punishment for his negligence was sent to a small outpost on the desert. A blockhouse guarded by twelve men.

It wasn't long before the Oulad-Seghir Arabs made us busy as we wanted to be.

We had a goodly supply of wine Christmas day. I got four or five liters myself, and when I went to sleep I wanted to sleep a long time. But I didn't get a chance, because in the middle of the night the sergeant, who was a poor man at drink, came and shook us until we were roused up.
We had no sooner opened our eyes than we heard the bugler on the roof cracking his lungs with the "rouse," the "alarm" and the "regimental call."

We bounded up to the roof with our rifles in our hands, but no trousers on our legs, and lined up at the "ready." "Good," said the sergeant, "I was afraid that you were all too drunk. I came up here to smoke a pipe and found the sentry had gone to bed with the rest of you. It would have been a bad job for us if I hadn't wanted that pipe. Look there!" and he pointed to the borders of the oasis where we saw moving figures and plenty of them. "I had the alarm sounded just to remind those monkeys that they can't catch the Legion asleep, and the regimental call was blown on the off chance that it would be heard in Ras-el-Chel, telling the company that there is business going on here."

It was nearly seven o'clock before they came. It was good that they didn't start earlier, for there were several hundreds of them with modern rifles. They climbed up into the palm trees and shot down at us, but that gave us a better chance at them for we couldn't miss birds of that size.
Every shot we fired brought one down.
"Our bugler was the first to lose his number. He was shot through the head, and he stood in the angle of the parapet and remained standing as if he were effective.

That gave us an idea, and as each man fell afterwards we propped him up with a bayonet behind and stood him against the parapet. When the sergeant went out we stuck his pipe in his mouth and he looked regular lifelike, only more determined. Soon there was a row of dead men guarding the blockhouse, and they looked so calm and confident that the Oulad-Seghir evidently thought it would be too risky to come to close quarters with us. They gave up the fight in disgust, so when our company came to our rescue at the double there was nothing for them to do.

"Brave fellows, you have saved the post," said our captain, as he embraced the corporal and myself, the only two left standing. But the worthy man was mistaken. It wasn't us that saved the post. It was those others that he didn't embrace.

The company marched past that line of dead defenders and saluted them.
That's how I got this bit of tin, comrades.

And They Are Never Popular.
"Some men," said Uncle Eben, "has sech a superior way dat dey kin make you feel as if you didn't have no right to know nuffin' till dey took de trouble to come around an' tell it to you."

She Didn't Want Him.
At a Salvation army congress some excellent stories were told.

One of the best, a favorite of General Booth's, related to a certain drunkard who fell into the hands of the Salvation army.

"He had been drunk so long," said the general, "that he was able to give us very little information about himself. Eventually, however, we discovered that he was married and that his deserted wife lived in a town in the Midlands. We immediately telegraphed to her: 'We have found your husband.'"

"In a very short time we got the reply: 'You can keep him!'"

Length of Life Increases.
According to Dr. V. C. Vaughn of the University of Michigan, the average length of life in this country is now fifteen years greater than it was 35 years ago. The death rate from tuberculosis, he says, has decreased 54 per cent since 1880. Doctor Vaughn regards crime as a disease and asserts that the only way to eradicate it is to treat it as such and "disinfect its breeding places."—Pathfinder.

All Blood Disorders
Quickly Driven Away
Astonishing Results With the Greatest Blood Purifier Ever Discovered.

Strength, Power, Accomplishment are all Typified in S. S. S.
Some blood disorders become deeply rooted in the glands and tissues, and the mistake is made of resorting to drastic drugs. These only aggravate by causing other and worse troubles. A host of people know this to be true. They know from painful experience.
To get right down into where the blood is vitiated requires S. S. S., the greatest blood purifier ever discovered.
This remarkable remedy contains one ingredient, the active purpose of which is to stimulate the tissues to the healthy and the medicinal elements of this matchless blood purifier are just as essential to well balanced health as the nutritious elements of the meats, grains, fats and sugars of our daily food.
Not only this, but if from the presence of some disturbing poison there is a local or general interference of nutrition to cause boils, carbuncles, abscesses and kindred troubles, S. S. S. so directs the local cells that this poison is rejected and eliminated from their presence.
Then, too, S. S. S. has such specific stimulation on these local cells as to preserve their mutual welfare and a proper relative assistance to each other.
In a very brief time S. S. S. has the reconstructive process so under control that remarkable changes are observed. All eruptive places heal, mysterious pains and aches have disappeared, and from head to foot there is a conscious sensation of renewed health.
From the fact that S. S. S. is purely a botanical preparation, it is accepted by the weakest stomach and has great tonic influence. Not one drop of drugs or minerals is used in its preparation. Ask for S. S. S. and insist upon having it.
And if you desire skillful advice upon any matter concerning the blood and skin write to The Swift Specific Co., 205 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Do not allow some zealous clerk to larrup the atmosphere in eloquence over something "just as good" as S. S. S. Beware of all counterfeits.
