LASTING SATISFACTION

is what every first-class house aims to give to its customers, and we are no exception to the rule. Our line of shoes is bound to please the most fastidious.

There's a difference in being pleased with an article when first bought, and being fully satisfied with it a year afterwards. It's this permanent satisfaction that we aim to give.

A POPULAR REFRESHMENT

and one that is enjoyed at all times by old and young is our ice cream that is made from pure unadulterated cream and flavored, as you like it, with pure fruit flavors. Our cream, Portland Best, is the standard by which all other creams are judged. There is not a more wholesome refreshment on earth. When you have a party or wish to treat the family remember that we can supply your needs in any quantity.

Grunert's

For some time past Oregon eggs have been in bad repute in the other coast markets. This has been caused by the eggs not receiving proper care, both by the producer and the shipper.

This feeling was growing to alarming proportions, and in fact, got to such a point that all Oregon eggs were in danger of becoming considered a strictly second class product in other markets. There being no good reason why this condition should exist other than the fact that our eggs were not being cared for properly, it became plain that the remedy was to find some means that would make for better care and more attention to quality by the producer and shippers.

For this reason, and to promote the egg and poultry trade and industry in general. The Portland Egg & Poultry Dealers Association was formed. It is composed of practically all the egg dealers in Portland. Immediately after the association organized it decided to establish a standard system of grading eggs that could be used as a basis of trade.

Following are the grades established: The grades shall consist of No. 1, No. 2, and No. 3 eggs—

No. 1 eggs shall weigh not less than 55 pounds to the case, in standard cases and shall be fresh, clean, full and sweet. No. 2 eggs shall consist of slightly dirty, slightly shrunken, undersized eggs and washed eggs; and shall be reasonably fresh and sweet.

No. 3 eggs shall consist of stale, extremely small, dirty and cracked eggs that are not leaking.

Duck eggs, pickled and treated eggs shall be graded No. 2 or No. 3 according to quality. All rots, spot rots, leakers, sour and musty eggs shall be considered dead loss.

All eggs shall be packed in standard cases, new or good second hand that will stand shipping. Eggs packed in other than standard egg cases shall be subject to a deduction of one-half cent per dozen.

It is very plain to be seen that the above grading will prove a great benefit to both dealers, shippers and producers as there is no question that it will quickly lead to a product of Washington and California.

From time to time the association will issue letters to the general trade containing matters regarding the egg trade and industry.

The undersigned members of the above organization will from and after June 15th, buy all eggs according to grades above specified and defined.
