

Use Our Phone
Sandy 4 x 2. For Items, Subscriptions,
Printing, Advertising

SANDY NEWS

The Live Sandy
East Clackamas
Booster

VOLUME 3

SANDY, CLACKAMAS COUNTY, OREGON, THURSDAY, JANUARY 13, 1916

NUMBER 2

Shelley's Hall Saturday Night Jan. 15th. Don't Miss It

PEOPLE YOU KNOW ABOUT

J. C. Loundree went to Independence last Friday to attend the funeral of his mother.

There will be services at Dover M. E. church, next Sunday afternoon.

Otto Meinig was in Portland Monday on business.

Mrs. Sykes visited relatives in Portland last week.

Clarence Seifer, of Boring, was a Sandy visitor last Monday.

On Wednesday afternoon, January 5, 1916, B. E. Sykes and Miss Florence Vessey were married in Vancouver, Washington. Mr. Sykes' father accompanied them. They returned to Sandy the same evening, but were not charivariated until the next evening.

Miss Gertrude Meinig is confined to the house with la grippe.

W. A. Proctor made a trip to Gresham last Monday.

B. E. Sykes made a business trip to Portland Wednesday.

Mrs. M. Revenue is able to be out again, after a severe attack of la grippe.

Sandy Grange met and installed officers last Saturday. Attendance was good.

P. R. Meinig has been on the sick list.

LOST—A black fountain pen with two gold bands around it, between Sandy school and Sandy Fir mill. Finder please leave at News office. Reward.

A meeting of the Commercial Club has been called for Saturday night next at Shelley's Hall. This meeting is not intended for members of the Club only, but is a call to all who are interested in the welfare of Sandy.

Sandy Lodge, I. O. G. F. installed officers last Monday night, the following were installed: R. E. Esson, P. G.; Joe Albel, N. G.; W. Bosholt, V. G.; B. Bauer, Treasurer; A. C. Baumbach, Rec.-Secretary. After the installation an oyster supper was served.

Fred Glockner, of the Sandy Mercantile Co., was in Portland on business last Wednesday.

FOR SALE—A heavy single rig with good single harness. Forty dollars cash. Address L. R. Mack, Boring, Oregon.

Buy your White Mountain flour supply at Bauer's.

WOOD WANTED

Will take some wood on subscription.

HILL CREST

The latter part of the week Mrs. Rowe was visiting at Estacada with Mr. Rowe's sister.

Mr. Rowe went to Portland on Thursday.

Mrs. Parrot and son are visiting at the Rowe home.

Oscar Smith and family moved to Portland last Friday.

Mr. White's sister-in-law was out from Portland at the White home.

Mr. and Mrs. Patton, who recently went to Pennsylvania from Estacada, have returned and are visiting Mrs. Patton's brother, Mr. Rowe.

Snow is about two inches deep here and fine for sleighing, but we don't see any sleighs.

GEORGE

The George Social and Commercial Club held their regular meeting Saturday night. After a short business meeting, a fine literary program was rendered, after which the evening was given over to dancing and games. A fine oyster supper was served as a special treat by Mrs. Stephens and Mrs. Smith.

Henry Johnson and daughter, Flora, attended the wedding of Miss Louisa Mueller at Mt. Tabor, January 2nd. Miss Flora was bridesmaid.

Mrs. Terwillinger and daughter, Ruth visited friends at Oak Grove during Xmas week.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephens were visitors at Leo Rath's New Year's day.

Mr. and Mrs. Joyner visited at Peter Rath's Sunday.

School is progressing nicely under the management of Miss Duncan. The pupils were all glad to get back to school again after the week vacation.

Peter Rhul and family spent New Year's day at Och's.

Mrs. Scheel and children, George Eilers and family were dinner guests at Klinker's Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harders visited at Peter Paulsen's Sunday evening.

Rev. Hofner, of Bethany, was the guest of Julius Paulsen over Sunday and held services in the church.

Nick Scheel and family spent Tuesday at Peter Rath's.

FIRWOOD.

The Firwood-Dover Telephone Company held their annual meeting at Firwood January 8th, and elected the following officers: A. J. Morrison, president; J. G. DeShazer, vice-president; Donald Bodley, secretary; W. L. Wilkins, treasurer; Fred Koenecke, two year director; and Antone Malar holds over one year as director. It was voted that the company buy a barrel of bates.

Bertha and Godfried Stuecki have returned home from Milwaukee, where they have been visiting relatives and attending camp meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wilcoxon are the proud parents of a five pound girl, born January 9th.

It's easy to sit around the sawdust box in a country store and solve the great problems of state because those who solve problems there are never called to account for their mistakes.

MASS MEETING

SATURDAY EVENING JAN.
15, 1916

SHELLEY'S HALL, SANDY.

We, the people of Sandy and vicinity, are offered a golden opportunity, but to insure this, we must get busy.

The united effort of this community at this time will bring State aid to this vital project, which is the assurance that the Mt. Hood loop of the Columbia Highway will be built through Sandy.

Powerful interests are already at work, which if successful, will change the route and exclude Sandy and vicinity from the highway.

Now is the time. If we do not safeguard our interests who will. Come out. Your presence and influence is needed.

Eagle Creek

The De Ronne brothers have been busy lately falling trees and sawing them up into cordwood.

H. S. and R. B. Gibson were Estacada visitors the other day.

Mrs. A. McWilliams, who has been the guest of Portland relatives for some two or three weeks, returned home last Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. McMillan are making preparations to move from this neighborhood, leaving their Eagle Creek friends to regret their departure.

Walter Douglas, who was hurt some time ago in an auto accident, and was a patient at the Good Samaritan hospital for several days, returned home last week accompanied by his wife. He is slowly improving.

Henry Udell and wife were visiting with the latter's father, James Gibson, last Thursday.

Miss Mabel Beckett left last week for Portland, where she expects to work as nurse in one of the hospitals.

Fred Mochulase was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Douglass during the weekend.

Fred Hoffmeister made a business trip to Portland Monday.

H. S. and R. B. Gibson, Roy and Carl Douglas took over to Estacada some hogs, which they sold to Bungler Lucke on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Reid were visiting with James Gibson last Friday.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoffmeister, January 7th, a son.

Mrs. T. C. McKay, who has been visiting in Portland the past three or four weeks, returned home Sunday.

Mrs. Kate Courter was the guest of Mrs. Howlett Sunday.

H. F. Gibson and wife, of Barton, were on the hill Sunday, making the former's father a visit.

Mrs. Viola Douglass and Miss Edna Kennedy called on Mrs. Howlett Sunday.

The Douglas Mutual Telephone held its annual meeting on Monday night. The following officers were elected to serve during the coming year: R. B. Gibson, president; Ed Naylor, vice-president; H. S. Gibson, secretary and treasurer. Will Douglass was elected to succeed himself as director. Ray Woodie and Alex Baker are the other two directors.

Mr. Affolter, of the Dover Telephone Company was present Monday evening at the Douglass telephone meeting, also Mr. Clark and son, Carl. The two companies are intending to co-operate and put in new poles between the foot of the hill and the Grange hall, as both companies use the same poles.

UPPER COTTRELL

We are grieved to hear of the death of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. James Fowler last Saturday. Rev. Brown, of Pleasant Home, conducted the funeral service at the home. The burial was at the Gresham cemetery.

Last Saturday several of the men went down to the school house and made benches for upstairs rooms of the school house. Several other new improvements are being planned.

The Parent-Teacher's Association will hold its regular social meeting Friday evening, January 14th. All members and children are invited.

Mrs. Lansdown visited the school last week and made special inquiries as to all the needs of the school for equipment etc. Her purpose is to bring all those things up in the meetings of the association.

Lawney Radford was one of the lucky hunters of this section last Saturday. He ran a young coon up a tree and succeeded in bringing home his hide as a trophy.

Mr. Higgins and William Caldo sold several hogs last week in the Portland market. They had them hauled down in an auto truck, and made a good profit after paying all transportation charges.

The snow is just deep enough to make good sleighing and several of the young people are making the most of the time. Several made the trip to Boring last Friday evening.

The eighth grade pupils will take the State examinations January 13, and 14. They are studying hard and should be able to pass easily.

WOMAN'S CLUB

Mrs. C. Lennartz and Miss Lulu Eddy were hostesses to the Women's Club at the club room on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. A. L. Deaton and Mrs. M. Mackey were admitted to membership. The following program was given: The influence of Foreign Missions on China, Mrs. Lennartz; Review of chapter 28 U. S. history, Mrs. Esson; Sketch of the life of Wm. Cullen Bryant, Mrs. Bosholt; Reading, A Man's a Man For A' That, Alice McGugin; The Caste Spirit in America, Mrs. Baumbach; Roberts and Beirut College, Mrs. M. A. Deaton; Review of chapters 1 and 2 in "Changing America," Mrs. Shelley. Mrs. Fox, Mrs. Wm. Sevrin and Miss Hazel Mills were guests of the club.

CHERRYVILLE

1900 and troze to death.

Mr. Couper got the predatory coyote that has been taking his geese and goats.

John Steenks made a business trip to Hillsboro last week.

The question of Rural Credits will be discussed at the Lyceum this week.

Weatherford & Steenks lost two cows last week.

Charley Harris predicts 4 feet of snow this month.

Sometimes it is better to have loved and lost than to have won.

IN THE SCHOOLS

Dorothy Couper, May Klinger and Gertrude Meinig were on the sick list the past week.

The Glee Club, of Willamette University, will give a concert under the auspices of the Union High School on February 12, in Shelley's hall.

A literary meeting will be held at the school house Friday evening, Jan. 21, at 8 p. m., sharp. Everyone is invited to attend.

The Sandy High School girls are organizing two basket ball teams. These teams will have a game in the near future. Watch for the date and attend the game. It will encourage the girls.

Mr. Warner spent his Xmas vacation with his parents in Eugene.

The High School is having examinations this week.

The bachelor girls entertained a few friends at their home Saturday evening.

Notice of Creamery Meeting

The Mount Hood Creamery Co., of Sandy, cordially invites its patrons and all producers of butter-fat in the community to attend the all day meeting to be held in I. O. O. F. hall, Saturday, January 15th, beginning at 10 o'clock, a. m. H. H. Watkins, Secretary.

DOVER

All the Dover patrons attended Grange at Sandy last Saturday to take part in the installation exercises and chicken dinner. There was a fine attendance and all report a fine time.

The F. D. T. Co., held their annual stockholders meeting last Saturday night. All the old officers were re-elected. Fred Koenecke was elected on the board of managers.

Evidently the Dover deputy game warden is looking for something.

Granville Cooper is out of the hospital, but is not at home yet, as he is having his eyes treated now. He is able to walk about and is expected home soon.

Harry Bodley, of Roseburg, Oregon, is stopping at the ranch with his brother, Don, for a few days. He says business is picking up on the S. P. R. R.

M. E. Lee and family visited with W. B. Roberts and family last Sunday. Birch Roberts and little son, Glendale, have just recovered from an attack of chickenpox.

Hogs and potatoes make a fine combination. Net.

The Misses Lula and Viola DeShazer, of Firwood, and William and Charles Updegrate, Donald and Harry Bodley and J. P. Kelliher spent Sunday afternoon at Morrison's.

M. E. Lee was circulating a petition last week for a county road between section 32 and 33, T. 2, S. R. 5 E.

William Berghouse is agent for some fine aluminum ware in this community and is meeting with splendid success in getting orders.

The person who never gets fooled is too big a fool to be inquisitive.