CHERRYVILLE

Good weather and good roads.

Fine show for a good fruit year as the trees are full of blossom buds.

Mrs. Lizzie Martin came out from Portland last week and will live upon her R. R. claim this summer.

Mr. Pomeroy was out looking over the telephone line and registering voters last week. He says there are more voters registering as Socialists this year. Some say no one but failures and crazy folks are Socialists or unreliable citizens. How about the Ault, Corey and Koenecker families. These industrious sober and honest people are worth more to the state of Oregon than all the pettifogging lawyers in the U. S.

A fine sociable time was enjoyed at the Dr. Botkin place last Saturday night. The hours passed pleasantly in tripping the light fantastic by the younger persons present.

Archie Crawford and family came out last Saturday from Bridal Veil in their new Overland to visit at the hotel with Mr. Crawford's wives parents, Mr. and Mrs. Freil and while here took in the dance.

Mrs. Ruth Hussock came out from Portland last week to visit her people at the hotel.

Work is being pushed at the hotel to finish it inside for the seasons trade.

A fish rack is being put in at the dam this week. Frank Sirois Jr. and August Beidenstein are helping at this work.

A fisherman from Portland caught a Dolly Varden over two feet long above the dam one day last week.
