W. A. Proctor and William Craswell attended Masonic lodge at Troutdale Saturday night.

Charles L. Hunter made a business trip to Portland Saturday.

Those going over the Columbia river highway from Cottrell Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. F. Beers and children, Mr. and Mrs. Hutchins, father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Hood and Guy Hood.

Twins were recently born to Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Mullenhoff, a boy and a girl and Herman wears the smile that won't come off.

The Cottrell ladies embroidery club will meet with Mrs. F. Radford Wednesday afternoon, June 14th.

The graduating class of the Cottrell school which was composed of Peter and George Hauglum, Carrie Brooks, Elsie Bates, Albert Ault, Emma Koch, and Eva Beers made a trip to Gresham one day last week and had a class portrait taken.

DOVER

It is reported that Mrs. Suzan Kitzmiller has traded her ranch at Dover to a Mr. Pitts, of Gresham, for another ranch.

Mrs. James Hodson, mother of Mrs. A. Konneman, while visiting at the Konneman home, fell and broke her wrist. Dr. Bachelder was called and set the arm Thursday. On account of the serious nature of the compound fracture, the doctor took her to Portland Monday to get an x-ray of it.

Mrs. Longanacker and daughter, of Dallas, sister and niece of Mrs. Konneman, are here to spend the summer.

E. G. Downer and wife have returned to their home at Tualatin.

Louis Bodley and wife spent Sunday on the ranch and returned to the city in the evening.

Quite a number from Dover are attending the rose carnival in the city this week.

Considerable donation road work was done on the McCabe hill last Friday, which is greatly appreciated by all and especially by Charles Updegrave, the cream hauler, who has been risking his life there all winter. Those who so generously volunteered will not soon be forgotten.

John Affolter got the contract for sawing the road plank for district No. 4I this year.

Seven men and four teams turned out and worked all day Saturday gratis on the mile of trail between the Hart and Lee places. It is now in fine shape. This trail is used twice a week as a cream route and three times a week as a mail route and should be made a county road.

John Affolter sold a horse last week for the European war.

A. J. Morrison marketed five fat hogs, W. P. Roberts 6, Donald Bodley 2 veals and Mrs. Updegrave 20 sacks of spuds Tuesday. That helps some.

Work has been progressing rapidly on the Bull Run grade, under the supervision of road master, Dave Douglas.

Mrs. C. F. Allen received her new Oakland car this week from Mr. Reed, of Estacada.

Some eastern city was boasting in the Oregonian some few days ago of having an auto for every 15 people in its boundaries. Bull Run can boast of having an auto for every six people in its boundaries counting children and all.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver were visitors at Mr. and Mrs. McCredie's on decoration day.

Otto Aschoff was a Portland visitor this week looking for an auto.

It is understood that Estel Markel, of Pleasant Home, has got to be quite an auto driver. The only trouble he seems to have is to keep his machine in the barn without he has someone to shut the door. He says, "Oh yes, I can stop it, but he put his foot on the wrong pedal and shot it backward out of the barn again."

Rockless Bravery.

"Have you ever stopped to think how many deadly germs there are on a dollar bill?"

"Oh, yes," replied Mr. Jobson, sighing, "but whenever I see a man with a big roll of bills in his hand I long to share his peril." - Birmingham Age-Herald.

The Tree of Genealogy.

It is with the tree of genealogy as with the oak of the forest—we may boast of the timbers it has given to a state vessel, but say naught of the three legged stools, the broomsticks and tobacco stoppers made from the ends and chips.—Douglas Jerrold.

MAKINGS OF A HAPPY MAN.

Qualities That Make Life a Joy For Their Possessor.

We have noticed the happiest man many a time. He works for his living, and he gets a good one. One thing we notice is he is a man of fine habits; doesn't squander a cent on liquor, tobacco or betting. He saves his money and is getting ready to buy some property. He loves his home, plays with the children, reads good books and keeps company with his wife. Because of his good habits he saves a little which will give him a chance to make an investment.

And then there is another thing—he is a reliable man. He does good work. He will not smooth over bad work. He is honest in whatever he does. Every dollar he gets represents just that much of honest labor. It is this, largely, that makes him prosperous and happy.

Water keeps its own level, and so do conduct and character and prosperity. If a man is mean and low, so will the consequences be. He cannot be one thing and his experience another. A low lived man may grow rich and happy, but it will not be for long. Anybody can tell what's the matter with a man if he is with him a day. He will soon see if the other is a spleen, a stomach, an uplift or a hope. —Ohio State Journal.

England's Oldest Borough.

As Salisbury is well known as Sarum, so is England's oldest borough, Barnstaple, as Barum, which may have been the Roman name of the town. According to old memorials, "the old name of the town was Abertawe, because it stood toward the mouth of Taw river." The Saxons changed it to Berudenstaple. Barnstaple appears to have been represented in the Witenagemot or Anglo-Saxon parliament. Thus it is one of the oldest boroughs, if not absolutely the oldest, in the kingdom. Its broadcloth industry, once an important industry, has now died out, but there are manufacturers of lace and gloves, large cabinet works, tanneries and potteries (Barum ware).—London Globe.

Disappearing Cannon.

"Some of our cannon are disappearing," remarked the lieutenant.
"Well, things will disappear when you have careless help," responded the lady who was going over the fort. "I had that a great trouble about keeping house."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Saving.

Governess—Why don't you use your brains, Douglass?
"Because I want them to last."
