DOVER

The snow storm which lasted for more than a week ended Sunday night and the sun shone out beautiful Monday morning on a 16 inch blanket of snow covering the earth at Dover.

George Sawtell, the R. F. D., mail carrier on Eagle Creek route No. 1, did not get over all of his route last Friday on account of the bad condition of the roads and deep snow.

Joseph DeShazer moved into his new house last week.

Mrs. Updegrave is having bad luck with her sheep. She lost one ewe and four lambs last week.

On account of the deep snow several of the small pupils could not attend school for several days last week.

A. J. Morrison, Lulu Milne and Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Woodie dined with the P. F. Evans family last Thursday.

Lee and Granville Cooper are staying with the Krieger family who bought the Cooper ranch.

Charles Updegrave had a hard trip gathering cream last Monday on account of the deep snow, he used his sled.

Don Bodley, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Woodie and Orville Evans spent Friday evening at A. J. Morrison's with music and cards.

Charles Updegrave spent Sunday at Firwood.

A. J. Morrison, Mrs. Lulu Milne and children and Mrs. Updegrave and two children took a sleigh ride and visited at the A. Koennaman home Friday.

A baby boy arrived at the Anderson home on last Friday morning.

The sick reported last week are all improving at present.

A. J. Morrison, Don Bodley, Mrs. Milne and two children and Mrs. Updegrave called on Mrs. Birch Roberts last week. Mrs. Roberts was very ill but is much improved now.

G. Woodie bought hay from Orville Evans Monday. Feed is getting scarce as it is required much this snowy weather.

Irwin Updegrave visited with the Lamper boys at Firwood, Sunday. They had some sport skiing.

Donald Bodley installed Joe DeShazer's telephone in their new house last Friday.

Woodside Wireless

Mrs. F. Wentzel and son, Arthur, are visiting at Mark Senske's and J. Burmeister's.

Saturday evening a bunch of Sandvites came out to surprise Mrs. Mark Senske, but found themselves very much surprised by the condition of the road, as it took them three hours to get there. Some got there hatless and some rubberless. The evening was spent in playing games and fortune telling. They all stayed and sang "We won't go home till morning."

In the distance we can hear the faint tinkle of wedding bells, but some say cow bells sound closer.

Alfred Wunische and H. Hazelwander spent Sunday with F. Theis and Mark.

Margaret Hazelwander is spending a few days with Mrs. J. Burmeister.

Care of the Bull Calf.

At the age of five to six months the bull calf must be separated from the other calves. From this time on he must receive regular exercise and be gently handled. When he is ten to twelve months of age he may be given light service, possibly one cow every three or four weeks. From the age of twelve to sixteen months this service may be increased to one cow per week.

Reliable.

"Is she reliable?"
"Absolutely. You can always depend upon her being just about thirty minutes late."—Life.
