CHERRYVILLE

March is going out like a lamb.

The warm rains of this week have melted the snow and taken the chill out of the air.

Everybody is getting ready to plant potatoes next week on Good Friday.

Mrs. J. T. Neil, Jr., was out from Portland this week looking after some business.

Ezra Trueman died at his ranch above Brightwood on Sunday of this week and his body was brought here for burial on Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Truman was in his 69th year and was born in New York state. He came here about 12 years ago for his health but was injured in an accident about two years ago and never got over it entirely. He was a good citizen and a good neighbor and was universally respected by everybody. Funeral services at the cemetery were conducted by W. J. Wirtz.

"Sonny" Allen, who had a mild attack of scarlet fever last week, is much improved at this writing.

The literary society will hold the last meeting on Friday evening of this week.

Now it is just Nicholas Romanoff instead of the Czar of all the Russian Empire. A big downfall. The result of the foolish and bloody kings of Europe and all are doomed. Good riddance to bad rubbish.

Uncle Sam is getting ready for a scrap. Everybody is talking war and soon we will have a big army and a bigger navy.

Mrs. Jessie Stofer and her father, F. E. Clark, went to Camas, Wash., on a visit last week and returned this week.

A fish rack is being put in at the dam to get ready to take eggs from salmon soon.

The basket ball games Saturday evening at the school house between Sandy and Cottrell resulted in victories for the Cottrell teams. The Sandy girls were defeated 21 to 4 and the boys 23 to 29.

Very Suitable.

Just Like Him.
Caller (viewing new baby)—Do you think he is going to resemble his father? Mother—I shouldn't be surprised. He keeps me up at night even now.
