

DOVER.

A slight shower in this community refreshed the coming crops and gardens slightly. The long continued dry weather has cut the crops short.

Don Bodley worked Saturday, Monday and Tuesday on the Marmot telephone line changing it from matalic to ground circuit and putting the line in first class condition.

Harry Morrison and some friends came out from Portland Sunday. They stopped at the Morrison home on their way to the mountains.

A. J. Morrison and Irvin Updegrave went to Boring last Saturday and brought out to the Updegrave ranch a 29x30 silo purchased by Mrs Updegrave recently.

M. E. Lee came up from Knappa, Or. Wednesday and returned Saturday with his family who has been visiting home folks at the Updegrave home. Mert now sports an Overland car.

A. J. Morrison and A. Koennaman treated their houses to a new coat of paint last week.

Ed Seward has improved so as to be able to sit up and walk around which his friends are pleased to here.

N. Schminky and son Bruce are very busy these days clearing land.

Victor Bodley and family and Wm T. Milne and family and Mr. Bongge of Portland spent the week end visiting home folks on the Morrison ranch.

Johnnie Dunn and several others whose names the writer did not learn, passed through Dover Saturday night on motor cycles on their way to snag camp for a fishing outing on Eagle Creek.

William Berghouse and Birch Roberts are taking advantage of the fine weather to clear more land.

J. P. Kelliher of Powe rs, Or., is now spending a few weeks vacation at the Bodley ranch.

M. E. Lee when returning from Estacada last Saturday had the misfortune to break the axle of his car on the Gibbons hill.

H. Fitzgerald was making hay last Saturday.

Frost Sunday morning nipped some of the beans in this community. What is matter with this season anyway?

The harvest is short this year. It looks like the sped crop will be almost a failure.

Supervisor Udell has a road crew now working on the Jones Creek hill. The new cross road signs are certainly appreciated by the travelling public.

KELSO

J. F. Thielcke is building a silo.

Mrs. Minnie Maronay has had a phone installed recently.

O. Lindholm is beginning work on his new house.

O. Lindholm and Minnie Lindholm are spending the summer months in Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Green and children of Portland are spending a few weeks with Mrs Green's father, John Lind.

Work is progressing rapidly on Victor Jonsrud's new house. Victor Lundeen is the carpenter.

Ned Nelson and Gilbert Jonsrud, who recently visited at their homes here, are getting ready to say ties at their respective mills.

C. A. Johnson is raising twenty acres of potatoes and O. Lindholm has fourteen acres. Both are insuring good crops by frequent cultivation.

Marvin Dixon is assisting Robert Jonsrud with fencing the latter's pasture for sheep.

Miss Ethel Wilkinson has resigned her position as principal of the Kelso school on account of her recent marriage to Dr Wilour Thompson.

Will persons of Kelso and of Sandy Ridge, who gave one dollar or more to the recent Red Cross campaign fund, call at the home of Mrs. Robt. Jonsrud and receive their membership receipts, which were left with her for distribution to save the society the expense of ending them out.

Southwest Dover.

Mr. and Mrs. DeShazer and family and Mrs. Schminky went blackberrying Thursday and found quite a few berries.
