CHERRYVILLE

The last days of summer.

Fay Shank and wife have gone to Portland where Fay will work in a mill.

Entertainment at the church on Saturday evening of this week. Everybody invited.

Everybody fighting fire up around Government Camp and along Still creek near Zig-Zag.

With the coming of the fall season we can expect some rain to put out the fires and start fall feed on the range.

Mr. Shank and daughter, Grace, have concluded to rent their ranch and move to the city. A good chance for somebody.

Louis Ritzer returned from Estacada last Saturday where he had been securing testimony in his defense against the allegations of his wife who is trying to get a divorce on the grounds of cruelty. She wants the custody of the boy and alimony of $40 a month. Small chance of her getting either.

The Papal legate, who is over here from Italy, says the war ought to be stopped as radicalism is gaining by leaps and bounds. Sure thing, the Kremlin at Moscow, Russia, that covers thirteen acres of ground and cost over $200,000,000 is going to be turned into a public building for state purposes by the socialist Government while the Imperial palace at Petrograd will be converted into a hospital for the sick and wounded. The Kremlin contains pictures covered with diadems that cost over 100,000,000, these will be used to feed, clothe and house the wretched. No modern billion dollar cathedral will be built in the future, nor churches multiplied without end for the people to support unnecessarily. "True religion and undefiled to visit the widows and orphans, comfort those in affliction and keep yourself unspotted from the world," not cavil and snifle and ridiculous ceremony.

HILL CREST.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Maybee spent Sunday at Lents.

Mr. Walter Krebs is on the hill binding grain this week.

Mr. Pruha has been doing some plumbing work the past week.

The road crew finished graveling the Kubitzka flat last Saturday.

Mr. Burns, who lives near Rockwood, was out in this locality on Saturday.

Mr. Carl Power took his mother and Mrs. Brownell to Portland on Friday.

Mr. Kubitzka went down to visit Chas. Greenwood near Troutdale on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Watkins motored to Portland Sunday with her sister, Miss Haight, who will begin her fall term of teaching in the Irvington school.
