Summer School Report Given

(By Orleen Koennecke)

Dear Editor: I'd like to tell you more about my interesting trip recently to the two weeks summer school at Corvallis for 4-H club members. There were about 1000 girls and 760 boys enrolled. Everything was organized and run according to schedule. The first morning we were there, we were in a class in less than an hour after we assembled. Altogether I studied in some twenty classes and learned many beneficial things.

We had assembly every day at 2 o'clock following our mornings of study and after assembly we had swimming, dancing lessons and recreation of all kinds. Some of our speakers included Governor Martin, O. M. Plummer, B. F. Irvine, Ray W. Gill, Art Kirkham, Rex Putnam, Kar Mlusser, H. H. Chindgren and Leo Spitzhart. In the evenings we had style revue, pajama parties for girls and smokless smokers for the boys, moving pictures, parties, dances and radio revues.

Everyone was in bed by 11 o'clock and had to get up at 6 o'clock in the morning. Each had to make his own bed, clean up his room and maybe do some extra duty like sweeping the halls, dusting, etc. And every boy and girl at some time had to be on K. P. duty in the kitchen.

But all in all we had a real time.

very primitive and one of the favorite haunts of the Izaak Walton leaguers.

Many new home are being built in this vicinity and all local carpenters are busy. Mrs. Laura Jones is having a court of modern homes built in Rhododendron. The office is already completed and the first unit under construction. All of the buildings have a shake exterior and the interior is finished with knotty pine. William V. Core is the contractor.

Frank Rypzynski has purchased a lot on Henry Creek from Mrs. Susette Franzetti, and is building a six room modern home. Henry Steiner has contracted two log houses for Rueben Hoffman on the Mt. Hood loop near Wemme. Both houses will be ready for occupancy in the near future.

Merle Acker and Homer Osborne, foremen of the Zig Zag CCC camp returned the latter part of the week after spending the past two weeks in the Quilcene district of Northwest Washington, where they had served on the forest fire. They were in charge of the CCC boys of Zig Zag who were sent to the fire. Harlan C. Hiatt, former district ranger, stationed at Zig Zag, was in charge of the fire fighting and sent greetings to all of his old friends in this locality.

Mrs. Loren Roberts and Lorna and Mrs. Wilton Roberts and Carol Ann and Kirk Roberts motored to The Dalles Friday to attend a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Roscoe Roberts, honoring a sister-in-law, from Marshfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Duke and Charles of Sandy were dinner guests of the Ray Murrys Tuesday evening. The Dukes will move to their summer home at Arrah Wannah the first of July.

Jimmie Robertson is rejoicing because he has had the cast taken off his arm. After a couple of weeks in splints, Jimmie hopes his arm will be as good as new. Jimmie suffered a double fracture and a complete dislocation of his elbow a few days after school was out.

Estacada Visitors Here

The Estacada Chamber of Commerce had as guests the Oregon City Chamber of Commerce on an inspection tour to Lake Harriet on Tuesday. The Caravan of about 42 automobiles formed in Estacada at 9:30 a. m. The Estacada High School Band serenaded the group and also made the trip to entertain during lunch. The caravan visited River Mill inspecting the fish ladder and partook of picnic lunch at Big Bend. The district Ranger and his crew demonstrated the use of fire fighting equipment and the correct packing of a mule to the group. The caravan stopped on the new road to Upper Clackamas for a panoramic view of Camp 8, Station "P" thence to Lake Harriet. Fred G. Robley and Harry Poole directed the group on an inspection tour through Station "P". Mr. and Mrs. V. Dell Butler made this trip as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Robley of Estacada.

Miss Irene Goss, a student nurse at The Dalles Hospital, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Goss over the week-end. She also called on friends in Bull Run.

Lavina "Sally" Larson is now working for Mrs. Alice Scales at Dew Drop Tavern in Sandy.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Knight, Jr. and son Donald left on Tuesday for a vacation at Long Beach, Washington. They hope the clams and crabs will be as plentiful now as they were when Mr. and Mrs. Regner Steffanson were visiting there. The Knights have a month's vacation but plan to spend part of it in Seattle.

Girls at Camp Namanau

Three busses with 125 Camp Fire Girls stopped on the flat here to unload on Sunday June 26 for the first—a week's—session at Camp Namanau located on the Sandy river. Many automobiles containing parents and more girls destined for camp passed through here too. Between 150 and 175 will occupy camp during the entire summer. The girls will have selective crafts to follow with the extras of horse back riding and swimming weather permitting. One bus returned to Portland loaded with councilors and guardian who have been at camp since Wednesday studying a training course. These councilors returned late Sunday to start work early Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Murray and children motored to East Lake Tuesday evening, returning on Thursday. The fish weren't biting due to a severe electric storm east of the mountains. They had a grand time riding about in a boat, and saw 15 deer.

V. Dell Butler was caught by Bob Tomlinson and interviewed on the Curb Stone Quiz program via KGW on Monday. So you don't think Bull Run water is pure, Mr. Butler? Shame. Shame.

On Tuesday, Mrs. W. Seidel and Mrs. Ace Irvine called on Mrs. Catherine Allen of Estacada and Mrs. Allen's sister, Mrs. Mamie Wright of San Francisco who is visiting her. Mrs. Allen formerly lived in Bull Run.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Ashby nee Marion Brown and infant son Thomas Martin were Saturday callers at the Ace Irvine home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Miller purchased a 1937 Pontiac Sedan through the Orient Garage on Saturday.

The Butler family held its annual reunion at McMinnville, Oregon on Sunday June 26. Fifty of the descendants of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. V. Butler who came to Oregon in 1849, gathered for this reunion. The picnic pot luck lunch was served on the combined lawns of Frank Fenton and daughter Mrs. Jack Spence. The afternoon was devoted to a program and a review of the history of the Butler family. It was decided to make this summer-time picnic an annual affair for the family.
