

The Sandy Post

Published every Wednesday at Sandy, Clackamas County, Oregon

FERN C. LAMBERT, Editor and Owner

Subscription rates (payable in advance) $1.50 per year

Society

Continued from Page 1

Foster of Sandy and Mrs. Hazel Rothery of Rhododendron.

The party attended the regular lodge meeting during the evening at which Maude Maupin, Josephine Ganger and Jennie McVardson served delicious cakes and coffee and honored those having birthdays in April, May, and June. Mrs. Libby Hall, Georgia Gunderson, Ella Baumbach, Margaret Loundree, Mabel Kealiher and Henry had birthdays during that time. Each received a special birthday gift.

Ormand White Marries Canby Girl

Miss Inez Gelbrich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gelbrich, became the bride Monday evening of Ormand White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert White of Brightwood. Rev. Goldman performed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride was dressed in coral pink, and was accompanied by Izel Supplee of Ona Alaska, Wn., in yellow. Rex Schultz of Canby was best man.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to 24 with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Whitfield and Mrs. Helen Wood of Sandy and Mr. and Mrs. White from Brightwood among those present. The young couple will make their home in Sandy where Mr. White is employed at the Sandy Tire Shop.

Dorothy Watkins Becomes Bride of Norval Naas

Miss Dorothy Watkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Watkins of the Sandy Bluff road, and Norval Naas of Boring were married at the home of the bride's parents, June 26th. The impressive service was read by Dr. Silas Fairham of the Gresham M. E. church in the presence of about forty guests. Dr. J. G. Sture sang, "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Miss Jean Sandblast who also played the wedding march.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of white silk lace and net, with fingertip veil of tulle held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of Talisman rosebuds, white sweetpeas and bouvardia. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Virginia Meyer, as matron of honor, who wore a dress of aqua blue crepe and carried snapdragons of pastel shades. Samuel Mallicoat of Pleasant Home acted as best man and little Ellene Meyer, niece of the bride, was flower girl.

INSURANCE

Life-Health-Accident - Auto
Theft-Burglary-Plate Glass-
Surety and Fidelity Bonds.

Brenton Vedder
Sandy, Oregon

A reception followed after which the young couple left for a week's motor trip to the beach.

Both are graduates of the Sandy Union high school and Monmouth normal. The bride has been teaching near Tillamook at Bay City. They will make their home at Boring where Mr. Naas is employed during the summer months.

Gresham Marriage of Interest Here

Word was received this week of the marriage Friday evening of Miss Eileen Swift, daughter of Ivan Swift, postmaster of Gresham and Mrs. Swift, and Vincent Rutherford, son of Mark Rutherford.

Both young people are known in this community as members of the Ski club and Mr. Rutherford as a star player on the basketball, and other teams of the Gresham high school.

The ceremony was performed by Father J. W. Jackson at the church of the Holy Cross in Portland with only a few relatives and friends present. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents where many beautiful gifts were tendered the happy bride and groom. Among them was a chest of silver given by the Rotary Club, where Mr. Rutherford is employed.

They will be at home in their new completely furnished residence on Base Line road. Both are graduates of Gresham High.

Family Picnic Held for Clester Group

A large gathering of the Clester family enjoyed a bountiful picnic and pleasant day, July 4, at the Eagle Creek grange hall. Those present from Sandy included Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Clester and son Kenneth and from Eagle Creek Mrs. Dora Clester, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clester, and sons Raymond and Bob.

Those present from other communities included Miss Nola Clester, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Gardner and Mrs. E. B. Crane and son Raymond, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Chas Clester and children, Arthur, Elsie and Earl from Detroit; Mrs. Geo. Goetz of Cornelius; Hal Clester, Miss Brackett, Miss Northern Mr. G. F. White, Jack Everett, Miss Pat Casserly, Mrs. Grace Johnson, all of Portland; Mrs. Nellie Smith and daughter Peggy and Bobby Wilkinson.

Al Mattingly Takes Bride from Seattle

Al Mattingly, who lives on the Loop highway east of Sandy, was married at a quiet ceremony Saturday morning to Mrs. Mabel Murphy of Seattle. Father Powers of Escacada read the marriage service with Mr. and Mrs. Chet Coon, attendants.

A wedding breakfast was enjoyed later at the Dey Drop Tavern in Sandy.

Sandy Locals

Guests at the home of Mrs. Pearl M. Fisher for the past week have been Mrs. Hodsdon and her son Fred from Alberta, Canada; and Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Norris and small son and Mrs. Norris' mother. Mrs. Norris was a former teacher of the Firwood district.

Mrs. Elma Spurgeon and daughters, Corinne and Louise spent the 4th at Rockaway. Mrs. Elizabeth Ender of Portland acted as relief operator while Mrs. Spurgeon was away.

More Sandy people to spend the 4th out of town included Mr. and Mrs. Al Meinig who went to Ilwaco, Wash., to visit her parents and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Idleman who took in the Molalla buckaroo.

FLOWERS
for
All Occasions
At my new shop

Cecile Brown
GRESHAM

Note Department
Never too Busy

Forefront among service divisions of this Bank, is our Note Department. As modern in its policies, in its specialist personnel, as today's highly specialized business needs. Big, and broad, enough, to serve you, promptly, adequately. And never too engaged to be of completely interested service.

Clackamas County Bank

Member Independent Bankers' Association of Oregon

SANDY, OREGON

Wemme

(By Mrs. C. C. Kandle)

Sam Cooley is enjoying a visit from his son, G. E. Cooley who recently returned from Honolulu where he served three years in the U. S. Army.

Mr. Lucy of Portland is constructing two cabins at Wildwood. The boy scouts and the A. W. Bell mill ball team played ball at the Welch school grounds Tuesday evening. The score was 6 to 12 in favor of the mill team.

Mr. and Mrs. Norwood Hads have purchased the Nehls house opposite the Welch school. The sale was made by Mr. Bittman.

Miss Mae Hall of Oregon City is employed at the Cooley tavern.

The A. W. Bell sawmill is closed down for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Moser are visiting with relatives at Timber Grove and Clarkes.

F. Hoffman of Portland has started construction on some cabins.

Mr. Dement of Portland is building a cabin at Wildwood.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Cook and sons spent the week-end with relatives in Portland.

The two log cottages constructed by H. Steiner of Brightwood for Reuben Hoffman opposite the Welches school are almost completed. Mr. Hoffman plans to sell the cottages.

Alfred Williams, M. D.
Sandy, Oregon

When you buy
Milk and Cream
ask for

Mt. Hood
Quality Brand

Daily fresh delivery
from government
double tested cows.

Phone Sandy
293

ECHO'S BEAUTY SHOP

If your hair is not becoming to you,
You should be coming to me.

ECHO CHRISTENSEN

Phone 321

New Location in Markwart Building

W. W. Siemens

Expert Watch Repair

Kodak Finishing

Gresham

Orego

Gresham Theatre Offers Late Attractions

Fri., Sat., July 8, 9—

Humphrey Bogart, Joel McCrea and Sylvia Sidney in
"DEAD END"

with Allen Jenkins

An absorbing and realistic drama of a people whose lives are tangled by an environment of poverty and crime in the slums of a great city. A powerful picture that will impress you.

Sun., Mon., Tues., July 10, 11, 12—

The Ritz Brothers, Tony Martin and Marjorie Weaver in

"KENTUCKY MOONSHINE"

They're a-comin' round the mountain in the dizziest, goofiest show you'll ever hope to see. Get set to see these hill billy lunatics invade the hills of Kentucky.

Also Donald Duck Cartoon

Wed., Thurs., July 13, 14—

Franchot Tone and Gladys George in

"LOVE IS A HEADACHE"

with Ted Healy and Mickey Rooney
Also Warner Baxter and Joan Bennett in

"VOGUES OF 1938"

THURSDAY—CASH NIGHT