Howdy Folks: The solid part of some people's spine is all in the knob at the top.

Mrs. C: "I see Mr. H is in the hospital to remove the color button he swallowed."

Mr. C: "By cats, I think it would be cheaper to buy a new collar button."

Teacher: "Where is the capitol of the United States?"

Peter: "Some of it is in Europe, some in South America and the rest is in hiding."

Mrs. M.: "Is your husband given to drink?"

Mrs. Mac: "Not much, only when drinks are given to him."

A woman would be called old fashioned if she couldn't see saving five minutes with some contrivance it takes 10 minutes to adjust and 15 minutes to clean.
