COOK BOOK to be OUT

The final steps of printing the Sandy Community church cook book are under way at the office of The Sandy Post and the books are expected to be on sale, Saturday at some local place.

CONTEST TO CLOSE

The subscription contest sponsored by the Sandy Post during the past few weeks will close Friday evening at 9 o'clock.

The four leading boys and how Emory Arney, Wilmer Russell, Robert LaGourge and Duane

'Twas a day close to Christmas,
And all over Sandy
Every one was astir

Buying at home is so handy.
Frank Schmitz was making
A toy plane sale.

The post office was busy
Handing out mail.
Echo was working

Without any pause;
When up to the door
Stepped old Santa Claus.

Me and my buddie
In kerchief and cap;
Had gone to LaGourges

Where they have it on tap.
When out on the street
There rose such a clatter

Walter came running
To see what was the matter.
'Twas only the new shoe shop

Across from Jack Grays;
Aputting on roofing
For wet winter days.

Jingle Buy Jingle
I know you've all heard
That things are humming

In this little Burg.
Gertrude and Alfred
Were waiting on trade;

Harry cutting hair,
Under his canopy shade.
Out stepped Maroney

So active and quick
I thought for a moment
That he was Saint Nick.

Then Ivan popped out,
A prescription in view
Looking for Plattner

The doctor thats new.
Fred and his staff
Were busy and more

Counting the cash,
One eye on the door.
Customers were crowding

The Market, galore
Walter and Albert
Were tending the store.

Valberg was selling the lumber
And Georgia a new hair-do;
Across the street was our mayor
