COUNSEL IDENTIFIED

During the hearing of a case in an American court counsel confronted each other for the first time.

"You dirty, double-crossing four-flusher," snarled one. "I'll show you up for the crooked ape you are."

"Oh, yeah!" returned the other. "You needn't take that line with me, you ham-faced liar."

At this point the judge intervened.

"Now that learned counsel have identified each other, the case will proceed," he announced.

Don't Be Haughty

The editor handed the manuscript back, after hastily scrutinizing it, and said loftily:

"You needn't be so haughty about it," said the author. "You're not the only one who won't!"

"My bowels were so sluggish and my stomach so bad I was just miserable. Sometimes gas bloated me until it seemed to crowd my heart. I tried Adierka. Oh, what relief. The first dose worked like magic. Adierka removed the gas and waste matter and my stomach felt so good."—Mrs. B. A. McAmis.
