Work has been started on a new work-shop in camp. It will be located at the end of the recreation bldg and across from the mess hall. The new building will be fifty feet by twenty-six feet and will house the tool room and work-shop.

Camp Dodge is growing in size. It now consists of seven bunk-houses, office, mess hall, bath house, store-house, ice-house and infirmary.

To those who have not seen

Camp Dodge, visitors are always welcome.

Sandy High School

A meeting of the home economics club of Sandy union high school was held on Thursday, February 8, fourth period, in the home economics' room. Six girls were elected as representatives to the home economic girls convention, to be held at McMinnville soon.

They are: Merrily Kurtz, Katherine Gannon, Nellie Clapp, Wilma Depolis, Betty Koenneche, and Bernice Echlund. Miss Pemberton, home economics teacher, will take the girls in the school car.

Nellie Clapp, Katherine Gannon and Pearl Hoffmeister, were appointed on the foods committee to serve chile at a nickle a bowl one day during the week.

The rest of the period was spent singing.

The Girls' League of Sandy union high school and the Home Economics club had a valentine party the seventh period in the auditorium, Valentine's day. A style show in which the girl modeled the clothing they had made, was presented by the first year home economics class. Valentines were given to the girls from a big valentine box. Tribute was paid Vesta Wells by singing "Happy Birthday" to her, and then the meeting was adjourned.

HOMEMAKER CONFERENCE AT O. S. C. FEBRUARY 27

The tenth annual conference for home interest promises to be the largest and most successful of any that has ever been held at Oregon State College. A large number of Clackamas County homemakers are already making plans to attend. We hope that every community in the county will be represented at this conference, says Helen Ann Thoms, home demonstration agent. This conference will be held February 27 to March 1 on the campus of Oregon State College.

Reservations for the banquet and for lodging and transportation may be made at the office of the home demonstration agent where programs for the conference are available.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their kindness during the illness and death of our father.
