

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

Dick Reese of Gresham was in Sandy Tuesday having Dr. C. Don Platner treat his hand that he caught in his Dad's sawmill at Zig Zag about three weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Scales are receiving congratulations over a baby girl born Saturday morning.

The Anne Johnston group of Fellowship Haven will meet Sunday night at the Gresham Temple. They extend an invitation to all.

Plans are being discussed for a goodwill dance at Boring for alumni and students of Gresham and Sandy to be given in the near future. Jim Sandblast, president of the Sandy alumni, would like to hear from others concerning the idea. The Sandy alumni will meet at Cohen's hall at Dodge park hill on March 1st.

Mrs. P. L. Dodd and son of Junction City accompanied Mrs. Leonard Lemon home last week for a short visit. On Sunday Mrs. Kasha Kielpinski, and Lloyd Jorgenson of Camas, Wash. were guests of the Lemons.

Sandy was host to more than 30 Clackamas county mayors and special guests at the Dew Drop Tavern last Friday evening at the regular monthly meeting of the Council of Clackamas County Cities. Mayor Sharnke, president of the group presided.

W. A. Allen, who makes Sandy regularly with his grinding outfit, is here from Newberg, reminding the farmers and others it's time to be getting the "spring fever" tools in order.

Ken Price and John Orr were home from OSC for the week end.

Christian Science services are held each Sunday at the Sandy Woman's club. Mrs. Alma Francis is reader and E. D. Hart, assistant reader. The services are at 11 A. M. and all those interested are cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Whitfield and son Frederick made a trip to Corvallis on business and pleasure last week.

The Molalla 310 grange made a visitation and put on a fine program with the Sandy grange last Saturday. Besides the 28 visitors from Molalla there were 16 visitors from other granges, namely, Damascus, Multnomah, Springwater, Monitor, Milwaukie and Redland. The following grange masters attended, Max Kligel of Multnomah, also state gate-keeper; Earl Davidson of Molalla, A. Snyder of Monitor and Rufus Woods of Abernathy. Mrs. G. W. Thiessen, state lecturer, was present for the afternoon session.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Benedict of Lebam, Wash. visited with Mr. and Mrs. Francis Rothery in Portland Saturday. Other guests at the Rothery's were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bettis of Sandy.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bettis enjoyed a visit Sunday with Mrs. Bettis' sister, Mrs. Embry and a Richard of Motesano, Wash.

At the last meeting of the Sandy Woman's club, Mrs. Norman Cook, of Juneau, Alaska, was guest speaker. Hostesses were Mrs. R. B. Smith and Mrs. Tom Cottingham. Another $5 bond was paid to Chas. Sharnke whose name was drawn.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Andrus of Hubbard were guests at the Eldon home last week-end. After an evening of cards was enjoyed Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Hart, all Harper as additional guests, Sunday, the Mills' and Mr. and Mrs. Andrus went to Timberline lodge.

The stork sent a real valentine to Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Davis, (Olive Pedrow)—a five-pound son.

Friends will be glad to hear of the arrival of an 8-lb. boy last Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. Ted Okransinkzi of Sherwood. Mrs. Okransinkzi was formerly Miss Margaret St. Clair. The young fellow is the second grandson of Mrs. Lena St. Clair, co-owner of the Gresham Outlook.

R. M. Townsend, property agent B. T. McBain, tax agent; and E. L. (Roy) Meyers, Clack. Co. service supervisor; all of the Portland General Electric Co., were visitors at the office of The Sandy Post Tuesday morning. Mr. McBain and Mr. Meyers both added their names to the fastly growing list of Post subscribers.

Mr. and Mrs. David Lane of Lewellen, Neb., have purchased the Sandy Rose cafe from Mr.

The Feminine Point of View is alert and penetrating when it comes to recognizing value and low prices. We especially want the ladies to see our beautiful new kitchen "gadgets".

All kinds of decorations and useful items for the kitchen.

Schmitz Variety

Sandy, Oregon

and Mrs. Delmer Coble. The Cobles have moved onto their property on Cedar creek and are completing their residence there.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Wolfe, formerly of Scott's cafe in Gresham, now of Silverton; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cornwell and Miss Opal Kane called on former friends, Mr. and Mrs. Bob LaGourgue Tuesday.

Mrs. Katie Junker has been suffering with a severe cold this week.

E. D. Hart, W. Bossholm, A. Malar, Ray Reitsma of Damascus and Oregon Ganger of Bull Run attended a convention of the Federal Land Bank association in Salem, Friday and Saturday.

The REA movement in the Dover-Firwood community is progressing rapidly with over a hundred members of the 120 quota already signed. It is anticipated that work will begin soon on the new electric line.

A Pioneer Mother's club card party is to be given at the home of Mrs G D Orr Monday afternoon at 1:15. Mrs Orr will be assisted by Mrs Mario Duley and Mrs G R Hugg. A cordial invitation is extended to all. The club is planning a banquet and dance for March the 29th.

Many are looking forward to the shadow social and program to be given by the Sandy Ridge Womans club Friday evening. The men are to bid on the "shadows" for partners for supper and the affair promises to be quite entertaining.

Are You Having Trouble with Your Income Tax Report

There will be a representative from the state tax department here from 9:00 A. M. to 4:00 P. M. on Monday, March 4, 1940, to assist in filing income tax reports.

If you are having trouble in making out your report drop in and let him be of assistance to you.

Clackamas County Bank

Member Independent Bankers' Assn. of Oregon
SANDY, OREGON

Our Neighbor Says :

Try our store for all those Spring Gardening Ideas - -

Everything from SEEDS to ALL KINDS of Garden Tools

Sandy Market Inc.
MEATS & GROCERIES

SANDY PHONE 81      RHODODENDRON PHONE 211

Flowers for All Occasions
Sandy Flower Farm
Mr. and Mrs. J. Suhr, Prop.
Phone Gresham 5228
Baseline Road

The Morning Oregonian
Daily and Sunday
Auto Route Delivery
TOM COOPER
Phone Gresham 5887

All Kinds of
INSURANCE
Specializing in Auto and Truck insurance and
Agent for grange insurance
Ed F. Bruns
phone Sandy 147