FISHERMEN NEWS

The state game commission will start releasing this week approximately 1,000,000 rainbow trout held over from last season at the Oak Springs hatchery on the lower Deschutes river. The fish range in length from three inches to legal size and will be liberated in the waters of the Mt. Hood area, Deschutes and Metolius river watersheds, and some eastern Oregon streams. Legal sized trout will be released in some of the smaller streams where low temperature prevents rapid growth such as in the Mt. Hood Area.

Plantings are to be made on a scientific basis and are under the direction of the newly-organized department of fish liberations.

WINTER SPORTS COURT WELCOMED AT NEW YORK

Following is a letter from Dale Cowen, manager, of the Winter Sports court giving one of their many visits as they are on their two weeks good will tour. They will return to Portland Monday night at 8:40.

We were met at the depot by the New York Central man and also Mr. E. H. Moot, agent for the Great Northern in Chicago. As you know Bob Eaton accompanied us along with Dinty Moore to Chicago. Several photographers were at the station to meet us. The only one that I identified was the Chicago Tribune. We drove immediately to WGN, the Tribune station, where a fifteen minute broadcast was made. From here we were taken to the Marshall Field store where we had a personally conducted tour through the store.

Following this Mr. Moot took us to the Direct Mail Advertising luncheon at the Sherman Hotel. Mr. Frank Bering of the Sherman

Hotel provided a nice suite of rooms for us to rest up in. Following the luncheon we were driven to the station where we boarded the Commodore Vanderbilt which seems to be the last word in modern trains. It is a New York Central train. The entire crew have been instructed as to our presence aboard and we are still receiving top service.

During dinner we received the following wire from Mr. Newman, Vice-President of the Great Northern:

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Cowen Commodore Vanderbilt
Hope you and your charming companions enjoy balance of your trip as much as I enjoyed our visit last evening. Best wishes from the entire Great Northern Family.

F. R. Newman"

We said goodbye to Dinty Moore of the Great Northern today. He was a grand host and we definitely notice his absence this evening. He bought each of the girls a handkerchief at the Field store.

We have a court of which Oregon can truly be proud. They are being received with open arms everywhere. They made a tremendous impression at the dinner last night. They are all very tired tonight and have already gone to bed in order to prepare for a big day ahead.

NOTE: A telegraphic report from Mr. Cowen stated that the party had a full day of sightseeing in New York City, phnetuat-ed by a reception at the City Hall and an evening at the Commodore Hotel Century Room during which Queen Claire replaced maestro Sammy Kaye for a brief interval leading his famous band. Complete report on New York City will be contained in next release.
