

SLIGHT ANNOYANCE

"So your sister is married? Is she happy?"
 "Very. The only thing that annoys her is her husband."

Easing the Blow

A young widow commissioned a monumental mason to inscribe on her husband's tombstone: "My sorrow is more than I can bear."

Before the work was finished the widow married again, and the mason asked her if she still wanted the inscription.

"Yes," she replied, "but just add the word 'alone' at the end."

WOMANHOOD

Thousands of young girls entering womanhood have found a "real friend" in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to help them go "smiling thru" restlessness, moodiness, nervous spells, and relieve cramps, headache, backache and embarrassing fainting spells due to female functional irregularities. Famous for over 60 years. WORTH TRYING!

Can't Eat, Can't Sleep, Awful Gas
PRESSES HEART

"Gas on my stomach was so bad I could not eat or sleep. It even seemed to press on my heart. A friend suggested Adlerika. The first dose brought me relief. Now I eat as I wish, sleep fine, and never feel better."—Mrs. Jas. Miller. Adlerika acts on BOTH upper and lower bowels. Adlerika gives your intestinal system a real cleansing, bringing out waste matter that may have caused GAS, BLOATING, sour stomach, headaches, nervousness, and sleepless nights. Adlerika contains five carminatives and three laxatives to give a more BALANCED result. Just one spoonful usually relieves GAS and constipation. Adlerika does not gripe, is not habit forming.

Wistaria

WISTARIA, the beautiful light blue or purple flower which makes your front porch so attractive, is a perennial memorial to Caspar Wistar, a Philadelphia physician who was born in 1761. He went to medical school at the University of Pennsylvania, was graduated in 1782 and then went to England and Scotland, where he served as president of the Royal Medical Society of Edinburgh and also as president of a society for the further investigation of natural history.

After his return to America, he became almost as famous a naturalist as he was a physician and anatomist and his home was a meeting place for students, citizens, scientists and travelers who met there to discuss subjects of common interest. In fact such assemblies, called "Wistar parties," continued long after his death in 1818.

When Thomas Nuttall, the English-American naturalist, discovered a new woody vine in the forests of the western and southern states, he wanted to honor the famous Philadelphia scientist by naming it after him. But he spelled it "wisteria" and if you spell it that way, too, you're helping Nuttall perpetuate an error instead of helping perpetuate the fame of Dr. Caspar Wistar.

Zeppelin

TECHNICALLY, an airship is a dirigible but it is popularly called a zeppelin and probably always will be. And so the name of Count Ferdinand von Zeppelin, its inventor, will live on.

This ought to please the count no end, as he was just a little conceited. As a military observer in this country during the Civil war, he wrote

Von Zeppelin

St. Paul, Minn., he made his first ascent in a balloon.

He returned to Germany and continued to serve in the army until 1891 when he retired with the rank of general and studied aeronautics. In 1900 he made the first ship that rose from the ground. It stayed in the air for 20 minutes but it was wrecked in landing.

In 1906 he made two successful flights with another ship of his and traveled 30 miles an hour. The next year his ship made 36 miles an hour and progress was steady from then on. The count died in 1917 during the World war when his zeppelins were at their peak of military usefulness.

Mardi Gras Custom

The carnival season at Mardi Gras is of ancient and somewhat obscure origin. It was introduced into America by the French colonists, and celebrations are recorded among the activities of the soldiers at Fort Louis de la Louisiana (1702-10) on the first site of Mobile, Ala. Similar festivities were observed in New Orleans from the time of its foundation. It was not until 1857, however, that a group of former residents of Mobile, Ala., produced the first parade with floats at New Orleans.

Star Dust
STAGE SCREEN RADIO

By VIRGINIA VALE

(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

THERE'S a superstition in Hollywood that an actor cast as a newspaper reporter goes right on into bigger and better roles. Robert Paige believes in it firmly, because it's worked for him.

He was brought into pictures from radio because of his ability as a singer—and then he was given one part after another in which he had no chance to sing. He seemed to be stuck in melodramatic roles. Then he was cast as a newspaper reporter in "Golden Gloves," and again played a reporter in "Opened by Mistake." And now he's booked for the leading male role in Paramount's "Dancing on a Dime," a musical comedy, in which he'll play opposite Grace MacDonald—and will sing and dance, at last!

At 75, May Robson has no idea how many roles she has played on stage and screen, but she's ready to tackle her newest one, that of Ellen Drew's grandmother, in "Texas Rangers Ride Again." It's one of the most strenuous parts of her long career, that of a salty old lady who looks upon modern Texas peace officers as poor successors to the ones she knew in her youth.

You'll be able to see Pat O'Malley, of radio's "Alec Templeton Time," on the screen before long. His first picture will be "Captain Caution," in which he will play a Cockney sailor who is captured during the War of 1812—and in which he'll sing the "Apple Song," which he has already performed on the Templeton program.

Ben Grauer has grabbed off the most coveted announcing assignment in radio. He's been selected to introduce Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt when she takes the air. Oddly enough, he and she will be in studios hundreds of miles apart, since she will be on the go most of the time; she'll broadcast from a city convenient to her schedule, and he'll chime in from a New York studio.

He is an energetic, jovial young man, who, since he joined NBC 10 years ago, has been working toward liberating the announcer from his stiff-necked, plush-voiced make-up. He's been trying to sound like a human being, and deserves a medal for the way that he has succeeded, and inspired other announcers to unbend.

Radio's "Uncle Ezra," (Pat Barrett) a confirmed bachelor in his National Barn Dance air show, found on his arrival in Hollywood recently that the screen expects him to have a wife. In the Bob Burns picture, "Comin' Round the Mountain," "Uncle Ezra" will find himself wedded to a movie actress, whether he likes it or not.

Venetian Blinds to Simulate Windows

By RUTH WYETH SPEARS

HAVE you ever tried placing your davenport on the side of the room where there was a single window? You probably found that it did not look well, because the back was just high enough to give the draperies an awkward cut-off appearance, as shown in the upper sketch. The lower sketch shows how a friend of mine solved this problem, and changed her living room that had seemed hopeless, into an attractive, cheerful place.

There are no windows under those lowered blinds. A painted box-like cornice board was made about 2 feet longer than the davenport and was fastened to the top of the frame of the one window. The venetian blinds and the rods for the draperies were fastened inside this. A narrow shelf for plants just the length of the davenport back was fastened securely to the window sill. The flowers increase the illusion that there are three windows and add a cheerful note of color.

NOTE: Sewing Book No. 1 tells how to make this cornice board. Also how to make curtains and draperies for every room in the house from child's room to kitchen. All about slip covers. Dressing tables from boxes, tables and old mirrors. You will be delighted with it. Send order to:

THE TRUTH SIMPLY TOLD
 Today's popularity of Doan's Pills, after many years of world-wide use, surely must be accepted as evidence of satisfactory use. And favorable public opinion supports that of the able physicians who test the value of Doan's under exacting laboratory conditions.

These physicians, too, approve every word of advertising you read, the objective of which is only to recommend Doan's Pills as a good diuretic treatment for disorder of the kidney function and for relief of the pain and worry it causes.

If more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove waste that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole body suffers when kidneys lag, and diuretic medication would be more often employed.

Burning, scanty or too frequent urination sometimes warn of disturbed kidney function. You may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel weak, nervous, all played out.

Use Doan's Pills. It is better to rely on a medicine that has won world-wide acclaim than on something less favorably known. Ask your neighbor!
