

Is your child a NOSE PICKER?

It may be just a nasty habit, but sometimes nose picking is a sign of something nastier. It may mean that your child has round worms—especially if there are other symptoms, such as fidgeting, finicky appetite, restless sleep and itching in certain parts.

Many mothers don't realize how easy it is to "catch" this dreadful infection and how many children have it. If you even suspect that your child has round worms, get JAYNE'S VERMIFUGE right away! Drive out those ugly, crawling things before they can grow and cause serious distress.

JAYNE'S VERMIFUGE is the best known worm expellant in America. It is backed by modern scientific study and has been used by millions for over a century. JAYNE'S VERMIFUGE has the ability to drive out large round worms, yet it tastes good and acts gently. It does not contain santonin. If there are no worms it works merely as a mild laxative. Ask for JAYNE'S VER-MI-FUGE at any drug store.

THE TRUTH SIMPLY TOLD

Today's popularity of Doan's Pills, after many years of world-wide use, surely must be accepted as evidence of satisfactory use. And favorable public opinion supports that of the able physicians who test the value of Doan's under exacting laboratory conditions.

These physicians, too, approve every word of advertising you read, the objective of which is only to recommend Doan's Pills as a good diuretic treatment for disorder of the kidney function and for relief of the pain and worry it causes.

If more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove waste that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole body suffers when kidneys lag, and diuretic medication would be more often employed.

Burning, scanty or too frequent urination sometimes warn of disturbed kidney function. You may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel weak, nervous, all played out.

Use Doan's Pills. It is better to rely on a medicine that has won world-wide acclaim than on something less favorably known. Ask your neighbor!

STAGE SCREEN RADIO

RITA HAYWORTH won a victory when Director Charles Vidor offered her a chance to become Brian Aherne's leading lady in "The Lady in Question." Because the sultry-eyed actress wears clothes so well she's been labelled "the best dressed girl in filmland." And because she's what she is, she found herself in danger of acquiring another label—that of a glamour girl.

But the lovely Rita wants to act. If you've seen her in "Susan and God," with Joan Crawford and Frederic March, you know that she can do it, too.

But in that one she was beautifully dressed. She wanted a role that would give her a chance to show what she could do in spite of being dowdily dressed. Vidor certainly gave it to her in "The Lady in Question."

Her entire wardrobe for this one cost less than $45. A drab suit, shoes with run-over heels, and a very simple afternoon frock—that's what this "best dressed" young woman was given to wear. She was delighted. But she couldn't go dowdy all the way—she had to wear silk stockings.

Remember Marie Wilson, the cunning blonde who was clever enough to put herself across in Hollywood by playing dumb? Her most recent picture was "Boy Meets Girl," which isn't exactly recent, after all. She has just concluded a 20 weeks' personal appearance tour, and now she's back in pictures; you'll see her in "Virginia," playing a neurotic young New York society woman who wants to buy an historic Virginia plantation owned by Madeleine Carroll and transform it into a night club.

A honeymoon that was delayed for five years started recently, when Laurette Fillbrandt ("Virginia Richmond" of "Girl Alone") and her husband, Russ Young, finally departed for Hollywood and points north. He's a radio announcer, and ever since their marriage, when he wasn't booked to announce she was committed to acting—getting 16 free weeks together was something of a triumph.

Are you one of these movie fans who implore the stars to do something on the screen that will really be a message to you? If you are, you annoy your favorite star no end.

George Brent has one of those fans, a girl who wants him to tap his cigarette three times on an ash tray at least once in each picture, just to let her know that he was thinking of her. He did it as a gag in one picture, and regrets it—says since then she's been so insistent that he'd be muscle-bound if he acceded to her demands.

Hot Upstairs Rooms.

QUESTION: Upstairs rooms in my house have slanting ceilings, and in summer the heat is so intense that the rooms cannot be used. How can I cool them without any great expense?

ANSWER: Your best move will be to create full circulation of air in the rooms. If there are windows that provide a through draft, put a large electric fan in one of them, blowing outward to draw a continuous current of air through the rooms. If there are not enough windows, there will be no great expense in cutting an opening in a high point of the roof, through which air can escape as fast as it becomes heated; the opening to be closed by a scuttle in bad weather. Heat in an attic is likely to be due to the overheating of stagnant air; when the heated air is allowed to escape, cooler air will enter, and the air current will give the effect of coolness.

Floor Finish.

Question: In a bungalow that we have bought, the floors were not protected, and are weatherbeaten. I want to have bare floors without rugs. How can I bring the wood back to its original beauty?

ANSWER: If the flooring is at all rough, you should have it smoothed with an electric floor machine, which will also restore the beauty of the wood. If this is not possible, you can clean the floors by bleaching with oxalic acid in the proportion of a pound dissolved in 1½ gallons of hot water. (Wear old clothes and rubber gloves, and be very careful.) Apply liberally, and allow to remain for several hours. Follow by thorough rinsing with clear water. After drying, you can finish the floors with two coats of top quality floor varnish.

Crack Filler.

Question: A space of from one-quarter to one-half inch developed between an inside door jamb and the wall. I filled this first with strips of newspaper and finished with caulking compound. After six weeks the compound has shrunk from wall and jamb and cracked every two inches. How can this be remedied?

ANSWER: Good caulking compound differs from putty in always remaining slightly soft. Putty, on the other hand, hardens and is likely to crack. From your description I think it likely that possibly through error you were given putty instead of caulking compound. Dig out the hardened material and replace it with caulking compound that you know to be of good quality.

Storing Kerosene.

Question: A correspondent asks if it is safe to store two five-gallon cans of kerosene oil in the cellar. The cans will be about five feet from the oil fired water heater, enclosed in a brick and tin compartment.

ANSWER: This sounds quite safe, but I would advise that you get in touch with your insurance agent and get the fire insurance company's approval. It will also be advisable to check with the local regulations.

Oil Film on Furniture.

Question: I have an oil burner and steam system in my home. I find that since installing the oil burner, I get a very fine coat of oil film all over my furniture. Is this common of an oil burner so installed?

ANSWER: This is not common with all oil burners, but may occur if the combustion of oil is incomplete. Your oil burner man should be able to adjust the burner and correct this condition.

Casein Paint.

Question: I am thinking of painting my library with casein paint. I am told, however, that should I ever want to use oil paint, which is possible, all of the casein paint would first have to be removed. Is this so?

ANSWER: No; for good quality casein paint, such as you plan to use, forms an excellent first coat for oil paint.

TEMPTING HEALTH AIDS!

Oranges give you refreshment—plus vitamins you need!

Nothing else is so delicious and so good for you as oranges!

They give you vitamins and minerals needed for the best of health. Fully half our families get too little of these essentials, says the Department of Agriculture!

So make oranges your family's summer refreshment. Peel and eat them. Keep a big pitcher of fresh orangeade handy. Or better yet—

Have 8-ounce glasses of fresh orange juice for breakfast daily. This gives you all the vitamin C you normally need each day. Adds vitamins A, B₁, and G and minerals calcium, phosphorus and iron.

Sunkist is sending you the pick of California's wonderfully juicy oranges. Buy a supply next time you shop.
