DOVER

(By Leona Updegrave)

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Schmalz and family were in Portland, Wednesday on business.

Mr. Huntington was a visitor in Sandy, Tuesday evening getting lumber to make preparation for the coming Grade School contest at Sandy High School on November 1.

The Krebs Brothers with their donkey is very busy now-a-days over by the Eagle Creek road, getting logs for their mill, which has been running steadily.

Mr. Schmalz and Mr. Ted Muro were in Portland Thursday on business.

Anderson's herd of goats has been sold to Brees or George. They are now producing goat cheese for a market. It was understood that Brees intended to get four hundred goats.

A very interesting Community club meeting was held at Dover, Wednesday night. It was decided to have the meeting every two weeks, the same as last year. The next meeting will be the sixteenth of October with an interesting program and supper.

The teacher now has the hand bills printed for the Sandy Grade school program. The rules are fifteen minutes for each program including time for entering and leaving the stage; each school not to have more than fifteen children in their presentation. No teacher may take part in the stage presentation. There will be cash prizes for the first three places.

Richard Krebs, a driver of the Gresham Bakery truck that comes to Dover saw five deer in the Sandy limits Monday on his way out.

Mrs. W. E. Bews was hostess of a shower given for Mrs. Alice Roberts Tuesday afternoon. She received many lovely gifts. Mrs. Bews served cake, sandwiches and chocolate for refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Krebs were in Portland Thursday on business.
