

GOVERNMENT CAMP

(By Mildred L. Simmons)

Sunday was a big day at Government Camp. One of the largest crowds of this season gathered here to enjoy skiing.

All of the rooms at the various hotels were occupied.

The two ski tows in the Ski Bowl, operated by Boyd French, Sr., were in operation and those who skied above the upper tow reported 'the most fun since skiing there last season.' Snow in the lower region was sticky, but on the upper slopes, ideal, for the advocates of the slippery slats.

Appetites were keen—nearly all of those serving food were sold out by nightfall.

Cars were parked two deep along the highway and it was a gala day for all.

A good number here attended the Ski Patrol dance at Timberline Lodge, Saturday night. Several Government Campites held lucky numbers from the ticket sale. Douglas King got a neat little ski kit and Mrs. Mildred Simmons a pair of super kid, ski mitts. Mrs. Krebs, of Rhododendron went home with a fine pair of skis and a pair of ski poles. There were about fifty door prizes. There was a fine attendance at the dance and the sale of tickets netted over two hundred dollars. The money will be used for much needed equipment for the Ski Patrol.

The community was all agog over the Oregon Ski Team which went to Sun Valley to participate in the Jeffers' Cup Ski Tourney. Our own Laurie and Boyd French Jr., were on the team. Donald French and Mary Ann Hill were also there with flying colors, and I do mean flying. We are mighty proud of their chalkings on the score board at Sun Valley. The Oregon team came in second. After the beautiful race Boyd and Laurie made at Snoqualmie recently, we were all "holding our breath" until results reached us from Idaho.

These young people are both beautiful skiers and if you have never seen them "flying through the air" down a ski racing course you have missed a thrill of a lifetime. "All God's children have wings"—on a pair of skis.

The Doctor's office received quite a number of minor injuries, but they were all sent home "hurt", but happy. It's really worth it, they say.

The Oregonian Ski school was well attended. Eight men won bronze skis for conquering the Magic Mile, above Timberline, in less than three minutes.

Margie Simmons spent most of Sunday by the fireside, knitting. Mrs. Simmons has her left foot in a cast, due to an injury which she received while skiing last week-end. The cast looked like a hotel register after a busy season. Nearly everyone of importance in the skiing world, in this vicinity, had his name and a patchy caption written on the cast. That's quite the fireside past-time on the mountain side—if and when one is "incastipated." Margie is going to have the bit of plaster carefully removed so she may hang it on the wall with her ski trophies.

Miss Irene Madigan spent the week-end at Hemphill House.

Marine Corporal Robert D. Simmons, son of Mrs. G. C. Simmons, is now at U. S. Navy Hospital at Bremerton, Washington, with a broken fibula, received while vacationing at Government Camp and Timberline. He tried the Magic Mile. Corporal Simmons thinks skiing is a good sport to "watch." He will return to the Marine Corps Base at San Diego as soon as he has recovered.

IS THIS HARD TO BELIEVE?

On the 10th day of July, 1881, Billy Welch, with a party of men passed through Government Camp in a horse-drawn sleigh over four feet of snow.

Then from November until March, 1882, Mr. Welch and his father, who were home-steading at Welches, were isolated from the outside world and did not receive mail because they were "snowed in."

In March of that year, Billy rode horse-back to Sandy and brought back an old-time seamless home-spun sack filled with the winter's accumulation of mail.

They were able to go "out behind the cabin" where they were living and kill an elk before breakfast.

Those were the good old days, my friends!

WELCHES

(By Mildred L. Simmons)

Thomas R. Brown, formerly of Bend, Oregon, is now Greenskeeper at the Mt. Hood Golf Course.

Mr. Brown has bought one of the river cottages from Mr. and Mrs. Welch and is remodeling it. The interior is being finished with knotty pine and a modern bath room with an electric hot water heater is being installed. Mr. and Mrs. Brown will occupy their new home some time this month.

A number of outstanding improvements have been made on the Golf Course. Trees have been trimmed, the greens have all been airtreated and new picnic grounds have been cleared and improved. The course will be in excellent condition for the coming season.

Elizabeth White entertained a few Portland guests over the holidays.

Miss Barbara Bailly, of Portland, spent the week-end with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Welch. Miss Bailly is enrolled in the Oregonian Ski school.

DODGE PARK ROAD

(By Erna E. Metzler)

A 7 1-2 foot cougar was shot by a government hunter in the woods near Bear Creek dam last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Radford have rented the Markvardsen house on Radford road.

Mrs. Ambert Andrews was reported a little better early this week. She has been ill since late last fall.

Frank Michelsen Sr., was operated on for a hip fracture at Portland Sanitarium last week. He was reported as getting along nicely.

Edward Nordin, first draftee from this community left January 21 to report at Portland for his final examination.

DOVER

(By Wallace Roberts)

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wolfe had as Sunday afternoon guests: Mr. and Mrs. Carl Spradlin and children and Mrs. Jess Spradlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Updegrave had over the week-end: Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Campbell and son Don, from Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. McDonald entertained a group of people at a card party Saturday evening. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wilcox, Doris, Ray and Kenneth; Karmen Keck; Wayne Bodley and girl friend; Mr. and Mrs. Web Roberts and son Wallace. A very enjoyable evening was spent by all.

George E. Roberts and Raymond Gray were in Oregon City on business Monday.

The Dover school bazaar, considering all things was a big success.

The Bingo game conducted by Mrs. McDonald and Mrs. Keck was much patronized by the crowd. It took in around ten dollars, a little over six of which was clear. The generosity of the two ladies in volunteering their services was very much appreciated by the school and community. The prizes were very good and another vote of thanks goes to the Bunnell Variety Store of Sandy, who were so kind in letting the club take the things on consignment to the school.

The long row of cakes and sandwiches surely went fast at supper time. Nothing but the best time was enjoyed by each and every person.

There is more appreciation due the ladies who brought needle work for the bazaar.

Clifford Updegrave and Roberta Anderson were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Updegrave last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Taylor and family were visitors at the home of the Nelsons Sunday.

The guests at the Guardian Health dinner, served at the home of Mrs. Albert King were Mr. and Mrs. Huntington, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wilcox and Doris; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bews. The dinner was so different and much better tasting than ordinary dinners cooked in the old fashioned pots and pans, that the visitors could hardly believe that this latest and most modern way of cooking could be so efficient as it was proved.

Mrs. J. E. Craft and children were visitors in Oregon City Sunday.

Verdon Fritchie is very busy hauling slabs from a mill.

BARKER'S BUGLE

Smiles — and — Values

HOWDY FOLKS:

The question is not always where we stand, but in what direction are we going.

Small boy: "Say, Mister, was you ever a little boy?"

Druggist: "Why, certainly."

Small boy: "And did you ever visit the woodshed with your Pop?"

Druggist (sympathetically): "Yes, yes, lad, I know."

Small boy: "And after your Pop had finished tannin' you, did you make a vow that if you ever had a chance, you'd do all you could to stop such injustice to little boys?"

Druggist (reaching for his handkerchief): "Yes, lad, I did many a time."

Small boy: "Well, I want a half-pound of Epsom salt, and I've lost the money."

"Are you John A. Van Dorky?" asked the young man beside the counter.

"No," was the surprised reply.

"Well, I am," came the frosty rejoinder, "and that is his overcoat you are putting on."
