A birthday party for members of Sandy Rebekah Lodge whose birthdays were in October, November, December, January, February and March was observed at their last regular meeting. A large crowd was in attendance. Franklin Rehberg was admitted to membership by transfer card from Corvallis Lodge, where he was initiated in 1922. Mr. Rehberg is a charter member of Boring IOOF lodge. Refreshment committee consisting of Virginia Alcott, Margaret Kozman and Jennie Markvardson, served delicious refreshments, with a special table for the honored members.

Friday evening, March 7, at 8 p. m. a free moving picture will be shown in the Sandy High school auditorium. The film, "Money," a sequence from "Alice Adams," portrays the problems of parents and youth. A panel discussion led by Beuna M. Maris of Oregon State College, who is a specialist in family relationship, will be held after the showing of the picture.

H. Dugger of Boring, recently celebrated his 75th birthday at the Dugger home. Present from Boring were: Mr. and Mrs. H. Naas; Mrs. M. Wright; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Johnston and children, Herman, Clifford and Beryl; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Naas and son David from Portland; Dorothy and Norma Munger; Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Jinks; Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Ruff; and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Atwasjer.

Clifford W. Updegrave, Eagle Creek, and Roberta C. Anderson of Sandy, recently filed application for marriage license in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley MacDonald of Portland, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Bacon, Sunday, March 2. Mrs. MacDonald is a sister of Mrs. Bacon.

Mrs. Alma Larsen, who is employed at the Dew Drop Inn, spent Tuesday, March 4, in Gresham.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Loundree had Mr. and Mrs. Dell Larson of Portland as guests Sunday, March 2.

Several couples enjoyed Saturday evening dancing at the Dew Drop Inn. Music was furnished by Mrs. Dorothy Peetz, Jess Cantril, and K. O. Craig. Mrs. Alice Seales, proprietor of Dew Drop Inn, has obtained a license for dancing and has put in a new floor.

James Stewart, son of Mrs. G. W. Miller, Bull Run, and Edward Wolf Jr., passed final examinations last Monday and expect to enlist in the navy. Both are Sandy High youths, and successful basketball shooters. Both are 17, Ed's birthday being last Tuesday. James might be delayed in entering the service a short time because of having to get his birth certificate data from Chicago.

The BANK in the community

THE HUB OF THE WHEEL!

As this Bank depends upon its surrounding businesses and industries, so have these, its customers, looked upon this bank as a financial ally. As new fields for bank service arise, this Bank keeps pace with the community's needs for new services. But, at all times, the old solidity on which this Bank was founded, abides.
