BULL RUN

Mr. and Mrs. Ace Irvine of Pendleton, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Koch. While here, they attended Sandy High School graduation and visited many old friends at Sandy and Bull Run.

The Bull Run Boy Scouts held an investiture at the Community Hall on Tuesday night, when Bud Skeslien, Bobby Marsh, Richard Bowers, Kermit Markvardson and Kenneth Metzler were formally invested into the troop. Afterwards, Bud Skeslien, Bobby Murray and Philip Helms acted out a little skit, which they, with the help of the Scout Leader, Melvin Haneberg, had made up. In the skit, the boys demonstrated how to bandage a cut head, stop bleeding of an artery and put splints on a broken leg. Mr. Dwight Curtiss of the Portland Area of Boy Scouts was present and gave a short talk.

Mr. and Mrs. Regnar Steffanson bought a new Plymouth last week.

PONY STARTING GATE ASSURED FOR FAIR

The ponies will get off to a quick start at the Oregon state fair racing meet this fall—and that's not just talk. It's the between-the-lines story in a contract recently signed by the fair management at Salem with Fred L. Cantrall of San Mateo, Calif.

The contract is for lease of a starting gate, to be used at the fair races, which will start September 1. The gate—the first one ever to come to Oregon—will be fully automatic. A hydraulic mechanism operates the locks on the doors which keep the horses in until the right moment.

To the fans the chief feature of the gate will be the fact that it will cut down tiresome waits between races.

Tuesday noon, the Sandy Volunteer Fire Department answered a call to one of Robert Jonsrud's houses in the park on the Bluff road. The fire was confined to the wall behind the chimney and very little damage was done.
