Mrs. Jenkins, formerly Annie Nelson, daughter of early pioneer parents, who settled in Kelso when it was a wilderness, was born and reared here. B. Nelson and Milton Nelson are Mrs. Jenkins' brothers. Mr. Jenkins, 72, was cremated at Palo

Sprague Urges Forest Defense

Governor Charles A. Sprague hands statement designating June 30 to July 6 as Keep Oregon Green Week to Nelson S. Rogers, state forester. A statewide mobilization is planned.

Salem, June 18.—Urging the people of Oregon to keep forest fires from the state, as a vital step in national defense, Governor Charles A. Sprague has designated a Keep Oregon Green Week for statewide observance. He made this statement:

Asks Mobilization
"Believing that defense of Oregon's forests is vital to the continued prosperity and happiness of our people and constitutes a very important phase of national defense, I hereby designate the week of June 30 to July 6, 1941, as 'Keep Oregon Green Week'. It is my earnest hope that every adult and child in Oregon may be impressed with his or her responsibility in guarding our magnificent trees from forest fires and wastage of every kind. I call every Oregonian to arms against our forest foes. Let this special week be a time of mobilization in a great cause. Keep Oregon Green!"

Membership Invited

John B. Woods, executive secretary of the Keep Oregon Green association, reports that plans are complete for a statewide enrollment of active members of the association during the special week designated by the governor. Enrollment places will be established in every community where membership cards

HOWDY FOLKS:

First Farmer: "I'm glad my wife's built long and thin like a sohestring."

Second farmer: "Why do you say that?"

First Farmer: "Because she don't shade the corn when she's hoen' it like a fat woman would."

"Hello, Sam! Glad to see you again. What are you doing now? Still pumping the church organ?"

"Yes, sir, I'm still at it. Gettin' to be a purty fine pumper, too. The other day we had a big organist from Detroit and I pumped a piece he couldn't play."

Mother: "Bobby, did you do anything besides eat at the school picnic?"

Bobby: "Yes, Mummie, we sang a hymn called, 'We Can Sing, Full Though We Be.'"

Inquires revealed that the title of the hymn was, "Weak and Sinful Though We Be."
