

LOCALS

Mrs. E. Dodd left Thursday for her cottage at Seaside, where she plans to stay for a short time. Jean Goheen and Shirley Forsythe are spending a few days with Mrs. Dodd.

Charles Hildebrand, 7, of Dover, received deep lacerations over the bridge of his nose and cut the corner of his left eye Friday, when some boxes fell on him while climbing in a chicken coop.

Wilford Radford underwent a tonsillectomy operation at the office of Dr. Platner Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Setterberg, and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Andersen, all of Portland, were among the out-of-town folks who attended the Pioneer Picnic at Jonsrud Park on Sunday.

Mrs. Lois Shearman states that yarn is on hand at the city library for crocheting shawls for the Red Cross, also layettes—which are practically all machine work and ready to sew.

Sandy Ridge club women have made several sets of layettes and are doing other Red Cross work, making use of the time they spend during regular meeting days after the business session is over.

SOCIETY

HOME CEREMONY UNITES COUPLE

Miss Gladys Linn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Linn of Sandy, became the bride of Mr. Ralph W. Odell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Odell of Portland, at a pretty ceremony at the Linn home Saturday evening, at 7 p. m. The Rev. Eichman of Portland, officiated. Mrs. Virginia Linn, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor, and Orval Linn, brother of the bride, was best man. The ceremony was read in the presence of immediate relatives of the young couple.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white chiffon gown and a coronet of white pearls.

The young couple left immediately for their new home at 1862 S. W. 3rd St. in Portland. For going away the bride was dressed in a blue suit, with white accessories.

HOWDY FOLKS:

A self-styled inspirational lecturer was talking to the inmates of an asylum. He was interrupted by an inmate crying out wildly: "Do we have to listen to this tommy-rot?"

Surprised and confused, the lecturer asked the keeper if he should stop talking.

"No, no, keep right on; that won't happen again. That man has only one sane moment every two years."

The tender-hearted young lady on her first fishing expedition, watched her escort pull a luscious trout out of the babbling brook.

"But isn't it cruel?" she asked.

"Naw," replied the angler scornfully. "He likes it. Look at him wagging his tail."

Doctor (after examination) "Madam, you have a constitution of iron."

Fat patient: "I've often wondered what made me so heavy."
