Word has been received that Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Connelly, who have been living in Chicago and New York for the past two years are back in Portland, where they plan to reside. Mrs. Connelly may be remembered as the former Miss Catherine Berger Sandy teacher.

Dale Perren, 4 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Perren, underwent a tonsilectomy operation Thursday morning at the office of Dr. C. Don Platner.

Mrs. Jack Silver of Cherryville suffered a badly lacerated left hand Sunday when using a hay cutter to get feed for her rabbits.

Smiles — and — Values

HOWDY FOLKS:

Seems as though a fellow better not start any arguments with his hands in his pockets.

A distinguished visitor to a lunatic asylum went to the telephone and found difficulty in getting his connection. Exasperated, he shouted to the operator: "Look here, girl do you know who I am?"

"No," came back the calm reply, "but I know where you are!"

Baby ear of corn: "Mama, where did I come from?"

Mama ear of corn: "Hush, dear; the stalk brought you."

All things come to him who orders hash.

Leader at village band practice: "Ezry—ye're two bars behind the others."

Ezry (testily): "Never mind that! I kin catch up to 'em any time I want to."

If you sing, there is the $75 prize song contest to be staged Thursday and Friday evenings, with divisions for chorus, quartet, duo, and solo entries. Miss M. Irene Leach, county home demonstration agent, is receiving applications from groups interested in competing in this event.

On Friday at 8:30 p. m., everybody will have an opportunity to win part of the $75 offered in the "Fair Quiz," in which every contestant will be a winner. Questions will be up-to-the-minute, on international, state and county topics, and cash will go to those who answer them correctly. Wilbur D. Rowe, city school superintendent at Milwaukie, and J. Ralph Guynes, Oregon City chamber of commerce secretary, will be interrogators.

If you're younger, there will be bicycle races for those of high and junior high age on Wednesday and Friday afternoons. Egg-throwing and watermelon-eating contests, also with cash awards for winners, are on the calendar for those 18 years old and under on the same two days.

If you have a team of horses which has real strength, there is a chance to win cash in the team-pulling contest on Thursday at 4 p. m. This has been divided into two classes this year, for those under 3,000 pounds and those above that weight, with prizes of $20, $10 and $5 in each division. Entries may be made with George A. Pope at Canby.

You might even win a side bet or two on Saturday's mayor's milking contest, Thursday's hog-calling contest, Friday's pig-driving contest, or the horseshoe tournament which runs the entire four days.

And these are only a few of the ways to take home prize money
