LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. Brenton Vedder returned to their home on the Bluff Road Monday evening, after spending several days visiting their children. They visited their daughter, Mrs. Paul Schmidt, her husband and family in Salem, and while there attended the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schmidt, Sr. They also visited with their youngest son, Wayne Vedder and his family in Albany.

This week, Robert Jonsrud shipped a combination log house machine, of original design, to the Rustic Cedar Products Company of Port Angeles, Washington. The machine is to be used by the above firm in the manufacture of the Jonsrud log house products. The machine is to be operated at their Bellingham plant.

HOWDY FOLKS:

As a man grows older and wiser, he talks less and says more.

Mrs. Peebles (ready to go shopping): "Mrs. Smart has a new hat, darling."

Mr. Peebles (slyly): "Well, dear, if Mrs. Smart were as attractive as you are she wouldn't have to depend so much on new hats."

Professor: "I forgot my umbrella this morning."

Wife: "When did you realize that you had forgotten it?"

Professor: "Well, I missed it when I raised my hand to close it after the rain stopped."

Father: "Is there anything worse than to be old and bent?"

Son: "Yes, to be young and broke."

BULL RUN

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Phillips of Corvallis, Oregon, are visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Alvin W. Klingler of Sandy, Oregon, route one. Mr. Phillips is with the KOAC broadcasting station.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Knight Jr. and son Donald, spent the first part of the week at Rockaway, Oregon, visiting Mr. Knight's cousin, Mr. Jack Cowgill. Mr. Cowgill owns and operates the city bakery at Rockaway.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Coats and son Gary, and Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Connett, visited the Tillamook beach over the week-end, driving by way of the Wilson River highway. Mr. Coats reported a very pleasant trip.

The Woman's club of Bull Run will hold its regular card party on Saturday evening, November 15, 1941. Everybody that likes to play 500 and pinochle is welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Robley A. Butler of Camas, Washington, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Butler of Bull Run, and friends the first part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Strong visited her daughter, Mrs. W. W. Helms and family over Armistice Day.

Mr. Tom Kubitz went elk hunting and had the good luck of bringing home a 400 pound cow.

The Citizens Defense League of Bull Run met Wednesday evening November 5, 1941, in the Bull Run Community Hall. Mr. L. E. Kealther, president, presided over the meeting. Over 35 citizens were present. Many subjects were discussed and it was decided to organize a first-aid class. The Red Cross at Oregon City was contacted and an instructor will be available for this work with classes starting Wednesday, November 19, 1941, at 7:00 p. m. in the Bull Run hall. Anyone wishing to take the course please contact Mr. Kealther.
