The United States has declared war, and it is up to us, the people of the United States, to work in unity during this war that has been forced upon us.

It is up to us to keep our heads and cooperate with our leaders in the civilian defense and all other types of work that will benefit the country; it is for our own good as well as for the good of the United States.

In buying, do not visit the stores and lay in a big supply of goods because by so doing you will deprive others less fortunate. There is an abundance of food and the transportation of these commodities will be taken care of provided you do not overtax our transportation system for distribution by over buying.

Follow the news in your papers and keep tuned in on a local radio station, if possible so that you will be able to co-operate in the blackouts and all other emergencies arising. By close co-operation we will be able to better defend ourselves, our neighbors, and our vital manufacturing centers as well as our country.

NINE DELINQUENT TAX PLOTS SOLD BY COUNTY

Nine parcels of property, acquired by Clackamas county on delinquent taxes were sold at auction Saturday, by Sheriff Fred Reaksecker, the county realized $6520 from the sale. This amount was $905 over the appraised value of the tracts. Date of the next sale has not been announced but probably will be held early in January, Sheriff Reaksecker said.

COUNTY REPUBLICANS TO HOLD DINNER MEET

The Clackamas County Republican club will hold a dinner meeting at the Milwaukie junior high school on Monday evening, December 15, between 6 and 7:30 o'clock, it was announced today by Robert Mulvaney, club president. A program will follow the dinner.

CARL A. RATH

The funeral and burial of Carl A. Rath, life long residence of the George District, who died in Oregon City on December 2 at the age of 74 years, were held on December 4 in Portland under Catholic auspices. He was a brother of Mrs. J. H. Wourms of Wallace, Idaho, Leo of Estacada, Peter of Oregon City and Louis of Burns.

A group from Mabery attended the last rites held for Mrs. Edith Andrews at the Pleasant Home church last week. Mrs. Andrews had been ill with a heart ailment for over a year. She was a very kindly neighbor especially toward anyone less fortunate. In earlier days, when she was more able she often remembered all the children in the community with stockings of goodies at Xmas time.
