War Farm News

FARM SCALES RATIONED

Farm scales costing less than $50 have been added to the rationing program, and may be had by farmers if they obtain a purchase certificate from the county Farm Machinery Rationing Committee. A WPB preference rating is required for scales costing more than $50. A rating may be applied for through the County USDA War Board.

IDLE MACHINERY TO MOVE

Authority to requisition any idle farm machinery and place it where it's needed to meet farm production goals has been given the county USDA War Board in a plan announced by the War Food Administration. Requisitioning will be resorted to only after the owner of idle machinery refuses to sell it to a farmer who has need for it. Details of the plan will be announced as soon as instructions are received by the War Board.

LUMBER FOR FARM USE

Using the facilities of the county Farm Rationing Committee, farmers may obtain an AA-2 preference rating for deliveries of lumber during June needed for essential maintenance and repair work or for new construction required due to increased food production. Our War Production Board is releasing 500 million feet to meet the shortage.

WAR SERVICE AWARDS

Certificates for Farm War Service are being awarded to county farm families who have signed 1943 farm plans. Certificates are intended as recognition for all-out effort to meet farm production goals.

DRUG PLANTS

War Food Administration is advising farmers not to grow drug plants, such as belladonna, unless they have a cash contract with a manufacturer.

FINANCING FOOD

As of May 22, Oregon farmers had obtained close to $1,170,000 in RACC loans through county USDA War Boards to finance increased food production. Applications for $706,000 in special war-crop advances had been approved, while $462,000 in RACC loans had been approved for production of other crops and livestock.

BUTTER PRICES

OPA's program to roll back retail prices won't mean lower prices to butter producers. War Food Administration has given assurance that it will make good on last December's pledge to support wholesale butter prices at levels equivalent to 46 cents a pound, Chicago basis, until June 30, 1944.

HOME MIXED FEEDS

Emphasizing the need for conserving livestock feeds, the Department of Agriculture asks farmers who mix their own feeds to keep the content of high-protein ingredients within the limits agreed upon for commercially mixed feeds. Concurring in this advice to conserve, the County USDA War Board reminds farmers that greater livestock numbers won't result in more meat unless feed (continued in the next column)

LOCAL NEWS

Harold Guthu will leave the latter part of this week for Eugene, where he will attend a mechanical aircraft school.

Edna Scales is again working at the store after a bout with an attack of the 'flu'.

Milyan Briles will leave this week end for Eugene where he will attend the REA bookkeeping school.

Clackamas County 'Smith Bros.' broke all records when they finished up the County Budget in one day. It's remarkable for both the County and the Smith family.

Mrs. Bertha Keck is planning to leave this week end for her home in Saint Paul, Minnesota.

Gresham Berry Growers wish to announce that the new Sandy receiving station will remain open for business daily from noon until eight o'clock in the evening. Anyone living between Sandy and the Gresham station are requested to take their merchandises to Gresham station, as the local receiving station was built primarily to act as a 'mileage saver' for the people who live on the far side of Sandy from Gresham.

Clackamas County Farmers Should Sign for Payments

Clackamas County farmers who are increasing production of potatoes and fresh vegetables to meet critical demands are assured by Glenn R. Cumberland, chairman of the County AAA Committee, that incentive payments will be made for those two crops as previously announced. Payments are to be made to growers who plant more than 90% of the individual farm goal of these crops.

Payment for potatoes will be 50c a bushel on the normal yield on the acreage between 90% and 110% of the farm goal. Payments of $50 an acre will be made on the same basis for carrots, snap beans, lima beans, table beets, tomatoes, cabbage, onions and green peas for fresh market. Farmers who are increasing acreage of potatoes or vegetable truck crops must sign an 'intention to participate' in the incentive program before July 1, 1943, the county AAA committee advised. Forms are being mailed to growers whose farm plan indicates eligibility for incentive payments. Potato and fresh vegetable growers who do not receive this form are advised to contact the County AAA office. If you have already signed your farm plan to show your intention to cooperate with the 1943 Agriculture Conservation Program this should be taken care of immediately.

BLACK MARKETEERS

Clackamas County farmers can keep their livestock on the 'white' market and away from the black by applying this simple test: If the prospective buyer wasn't a regular customer before the war, ask to see his dealer permit. If he can't show one, he's a black marketeer.

FOOD FRONT BRIEFS

Based on the rate of production so far, 5 million dozen eggs will be produced in 1943, while the goal called for 4,780,000 dozen — On May 1, 10,492,000 persons were employed in the nation's farm production army. This is 304,000 fewer than a year ago, but an increase of more than a million since April 1 — OPA regulations no longer require surrender of ration stamps for custom processing of meat, such as curing, cutting, brining, etc. — Sailors in training at the navy's minelaying school at Point Patience, Maryland, have planted an extensive vegetable garden and topped it off with 60 acres of soybeans — Heavier grades of wire fencing, including barbed wire, are due as a result of a War Production Board order permitting greater latitude to the manufacturers.
