WITHOUT INSURANCE — all you own rides with you!

If you own a home, a business, a savings account, securities or anything of value, you must be prepared to defend a case in court and possibly pay a large judgement. When you drive a car without proper insurance protection, an accident might result in a verdict against you that would mean financial ruin. Don't take this chance — you never know what the cost of your ride may be. There is a simple inexpensive way of avoiding this.

A Policy, covering Public Liability and Property Damage, will protect you against claims, judgments and costs. No better protection is available.

You can help by devoting a few hours each week to the Aircraft Warning Service — a volunteer, non-military activity of the United States Army.

Tune in: "EYES ALOFT" NBC Network, Mon 6:00 P. M.

If an enemy air raid on this area is attempted — as ranking Army officers are convinced it will be — it will come with inconceivable suddenness. There'll be no time to study up on your air raid instructions . . . no time to get prepared. And it will be too late to wish you had been ALERT.

All the air raid precautions you see about you will have been justified a thousand-fold if a raid does come. That's why several thousand volunteer workers devote their time unselfishly, as loyal Americans, in the various activities of the Aircraft Warning Service.

You, too, are needed to help keep this area constantly on the alert. There is something important you can do. The instruction, under military personnel, is brief, interesting and educational. Sign up today — tomorrow SURE — at . . .
