"A GREAT DAY"

Memphis, Tennessee is furnishing proof that lust for power is not an abnormal characteristic of a few dictators in Europe. The local political leaders of Memphis are seizing industries in their area under an expanding program of public ownership for exactly the same reason that Hitler seized every nation on which he could lay hands, loot to further the aims of political aggrandizement.

The technique of the power politician is the same whether he be a Hitler or a ward boss. Everything he does is in the name of the "general welfare." And so it goes with Memphis. According to Business Week: "It was a great day, (in the opinion of the politicians) when the city took over the electric and gas distribution systems in 1939. Now a greater day is in the works."

The politicians have announced that plans are in progress for the city to acquire other privately-owned utilities and use their profits to partially defray the cost of city government. "Negotiations" will probably start before the end of 1944 with the privately-owned street railway company, a subsidiary of the Memphis Generating company. The Tennessee legislature passed a bill giving Memphis permission to acquire the generating company. After that it is reported that the telephone and telegraph companies will be next on the list for acquisition to help pay the growing cost of the local bureaucracy.

Industry itself is helpless to stop the trend toward greater and greater political domination over the people. Nearly every business today exists by virtue of some kind of a license. If the trend toward state socialism in this nation is to be stopped it must be stopped by the people at the polls. Politicians in the federal government are using the same tactics that are being applied in Memphis to destroy private industry throughout the nation. They can still be stopped. But the time will come when not even the people will be able to stop them if the people do not soon see thru the eye wash in the fateful phrase "general welfare." Then indeed "a great day" will have arrived for the new order.

"Madam are you positive you know where your husband was the night the crime was committed?"

"Well, all I can say is that if I didn't know, then I busted a perfectly good rolling pin on the head of an innocent man."

R. E. A. CO-OP HAS FINE MEETING

The N. E. Clackamas County R. E. A. Coop, entertained six Oregon Coops at the Women's club building on Tuesday. The Sandy grange served the dinner. The different problems confronting the various projects were discussed at the meeting.

Those present were Eric Johnson and Mr. DePriest of the Wasco Electric coop; Mr. Meisner of the West Oregon coop, Mr. Hendrix of the Benton-Lincoln Electric coop, Mrs. McFarland of the Umatilla Electric coop, Mr. Parker of the Blackly Lane coop on the local board and George Pischel.

Election of officers was held for the coming year and the following were elected: Mr. Parker, president; Mr. Hendrix vice president; and Mrs. Fred Decker of the Sandy coop as executive secretary-treasurer.

BELLIGERENT BISHOP

SOUTH PACIFIC — Despite the non-combatant status of the clergy, Lt. Lamar Faught, of Urbana, O., former Ohio Wesleyan university athlete, affectionately christened the twin-motored transport plane he pilots over Jap-infested waters the "Battling Bishop."

Reason: Sportswriters for years have dubbed his alma mater's teams the "Battling Bishops" because this college is tops among the 130 educational institutions of The Methodist Church in supplying the denomination with bishops. Fourteen alumni and five former presidents and professors, elevated to this office are represented in this militant moniker.
