THE LOW DOWN from HICKORY GROVE

I have been reading where somebody here and there is losing 100 dollars or 300 dollars every day or so, leaving it in an unlocked car or misplacing it somehow or other. As she looks to me this is just another argument for a sales tax. If money is getting so plentiful that people can kick it around, then Uncle Sam just as well be getting his cut off. That Old Boy certainly could use it.

Any time anybody is carrying 200 or 300 dollars around in his jeans he is carrying too much. The safe place for that money is either in a bank or in a war bond, and if it is in a war bond then the bond should be in the bank too. And while we are on banks you will go a long way before you will find any place where they have more alert employees andwh ere you get nicer treatment.

If you have a hundred dollar bond or a few 20 dollar bills under the mattress or in a fruit jar you better take heed and go down to the bank with them. No banker is paying me a nickel for writing this, but I think it is time somebody gave these boys a kind word and a boost, so I do so.

Yours with the low down. JOE SERRA.
