THE LOW DOWN
—from—
HICKORY GROVE

If you choose to read Freud or the wispy words of the psychologist, you will maybe conclude that discipline for a sapling is a terrible thing and will stunt and upset for use, a young person. But anybody who has brought up one off-shoot or a flock of same, or has worked with youngsters like in the Boy Scouts or the Girl Scouts, they know what happens when you let down the bars, and have no discipline.

Proceed, says Henry, if you think you have anything important to expound. It is how, I says, they been using the Freud system on labor leaders, and look at the mess. The folks we been electing to high places, and even lower places, they been coddling the bossy boys in Labor who have been leading the worker around like as if he had a ring in his nose. And now, on every side, the union top squawks are makin' faces at Uncle Sambo and telling him the horse-laugh and tellin' him to go on home, and cross no picket lines. And the folks in government are now as unimportant and ineffective in getting anything done as is a Freud mama telling her 17-year-old to get home before 4 a. m.

Some backbone and gumption in government is what this country could use more of.

Yours with the low down,

Jo Serra.
