Eagle Creek Welcomes New Year
With Old-Fashioned Barn Dance

EAGLE CREEK—A barn dance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Smith on New Year's Eve provided an evening of fun with old-time dances for some 35 guests. Cecil Jepson, Dick Jepson and John Shoemaker provided the music.

A lunch was served shortly after midnight to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Claude Tweedy, Miss Darlene Tweedy; Mr. and Mrs. Al Tweedy and children Joyce, Althea, Betty Lou, and Rodney; Mr. and Mrs. John Shoemaker; Jack Shoemaker, Mrs. M. I. Shumway, Miss Dolly Shumway, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Jepson, Dick Jepson, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Lake, Miss Ruby Lake, Delbert Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Rush, Ed Jones; Miss Dorothy Johnson, Ed Williams and Patrick Smith.

David Whistler has accepted a position at the Kastel lumber mill.

Return to Eagle Creek

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Smith returned to their home in Eagle Creek last Wednesday from a week's visit with their daughter in Santa Rosa, California. Their son, Lyle Smith of Portland, accompanied them on the trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Rush were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Powell on New Year's Day.

Visiting at the home of Mr. Shoemaker's niece on New Year's Day, Mr. and Mrs. John Shoemaker and son Jack enjoyed a chicken dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vanek of Vancouver, Washington.

The first meeting of the Eagle Creek Community club for 1948 is scheduled for January 23. A large attendance is urged by the club's president, Mrs. Lloyd Potter.

Record Year Reported

Postmaster Elsie Campbell reports that the local postoffice did a record business over the Christmas holidays and says that more mail was handled this year than in any other year.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Potter entertained a few friends and relatives on New Year's eve.

Miss Gayle Newson returned home last week-end after spending the holidays in Portland with relatives. Her mother recovered sufficiently to be home in time for Christmas.
