Dolores Dollowitch Becomes Bride of Eugene Boitano in Church at Sandy

Miss Dolores Cecelia Dollowitch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Dollowitch of Epperson road, and Eugene Boitano, son of Mrs. Eugenia Boitano, of Boitano road, were united in marriage at a nuptial mass at St. Michael's Catholic church at Sandy on Wednesday, January 14, at 9 a. m., with Father Del Planche officiating.

The bride wore a traditional white satin gown with veil and carried a nosegay of pink rose buds and white chrysanthemums.

Sister Is Attendant

Miss Charlotte Dollowitch, sister of the bride, wearing an aqua gown and aqua head dress, and carrying a nosegay of rose buds and chrysanthemums was maid of honor.

Ben Brockway, of Portland, was best man and Fred Dollowitch, cousin of the bride, was usher. The wedding music was furnished by Miss Elaine Susanka, vocal soloist, and Mrs. Marcella Susanka, accompanist.

Following the wedding, a breakfast was served to the immediate family at the Sandy Women's club hall.

In the evening a reception was held at the same hall with a large group of relatives and friends attending. Miss Hyacinth Grassi was in charge of the guest book.

Luncheon Served

A luncheon was served in the dining hall with Mesdames Hazel Peterson and Tubbs in charge, assisted by Misses Adeline Grassi and Lily Minyard.

Mrs. Albert Bernert, of Willamette, aunt of the bride cut the wedding cake and Mrs. Parker Holloway, sister of the groom, assisted about the rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. Boitano are graduates of Sandy high school. Mrs. Boitano has been employed at the Clackamas county bank since her graduation in 1947.

Following his graduation, Mr. Boitano served in the army. After a short honeymoon, the newlyweds will be at home to their friends on their farm on Boitano road.

Orient Couple Honored For 26th Wedding Date

ORIENT—Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Harris, of Orient, were honored at a party held to observe their 25th wedding anniversary recently.

The co-hostesses were Mrs. Blanche Jackson and Mrs. Lorryne Crosier. The party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jackson on Jackson road. Many gifts and silver money were received by the couple, and a lunch was served. There were 37 friends and relatives present.

Campfire Leaders Attend Training Session in Sandy

Mrs. Phillip Van Arnam, executive director of Clackamas county Campfire Girls, held a training course for guardians (adult leaders) in the Sandy-Boring area at the home of Mrs. Myron Goodell on Thursday, Jan. 15.

Mrs. J. A. Wylie, camp chairman of Oregon City, was also present to help give instruction on group organizing and program planning.

A potluck luncheon was served at noon to the following leaders: Mrs. Robert V. Medley, Mrs. Ben Spahr, Mrs. Charles Haworth, Mrs. Arthur Dyal, Mrs. R. Hunter, Mrs. Robert Duncan and Mrs. Myron Goodell, all of Sandy, Mrs. Frances Grufke, Mrs. Milton Lange and Mrs. Jim Knox, Boring.

The second meeting of the training course will be held Tuesday, Feb. 10 at Camp Onalee near Molalla.

The annual dinner of the county Campfire council will be held at 6:30 p. m. Jan. 29 in Oregon City at the West Linn Inn. Dr. Morgan Odell, president of Lewis & Clark College, will be the speaker of the evening. Accomplishments of the past year will be reviewed and plans for the coming year discussed. All adults interested in youth are invited to attend. Anyone wishing to attend can contact Mrs. Myron Goodell for reservations.

Baby Shower for Mrs. George Wolf

Mrs. George Wolf was honored with a baby shower Tuesday, Jan. 13, at the home of Mrs. Robert V. Medley.

Those present were Mrs. Floyd Burdick, Mrs. D. H. Burdick, Mrs. Gilbert Eri, Mrs. E. M. Wolf, Mrs. Inez Phelps, Mrs. Ted Mudrow, Mrs. H. B. Reed, Mrs. Eldon Mills, Miss Betty Lou Johnson, Miss Rita Hashagen, all of Sandy, and Mrs. Art Gleeson, Portland.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Wallace Scales and Mrs. Medley.

Landscaping Discussed Before Firwood Unit

An informative talk on "Landscape Planning" for the home given by Lee Garolan, assistant Clackamas county agent, was the feature of the afternoon program of the Firwood extension unit, at its meeting last week at the home of Mrs. W. H. Harris. Morning hours were spent in the business meeting, which was followed by a luncheon.

Present were Mesdames Walter Markwart, D. E. King, O. Henley, G. E. Bollinger, Harry Nicholson, Lewis Miller, Fred Decker, A. C. Lamb and Gary, E. E. Anderson and daughter, L. Armstrong, Lorry Armstrong, John Eggers and Miss Ruth DeShazer.

Mrs. Walter Wessellink will be hostess for the February meeting which will be held Tuesday, Feb. 11.

'Salome' Featured Sunday at The Sandy Theatre

The old west takes over at the Sandy Theatre when film attractions "Western Union" and "Cyclone Prairie Rangers" open today and appear Friday and Saturday, Jan. 22, 23 and 24th on the Sandy's screen.

Robert Young and Randolph Scott top the cast in Zane Grey's thriller, "Western Union." Charles Starrett, "Dub" Taylor and Jimmy Wakley share starring roles in "Cyclone Prairie Rangers."

Opens Sunday

Pictured in vivid technicolor, "Salome, Where She Danced" stars Yvonne DeCarlo, Rod Cameron and David Bruce in a tale of the west. This attraction opens Sunday at the Sandy, and will be shown Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Jan. 25, 26, 27 and 28.

Coupled with "Salome, Where She Danced" on the double feature bill is "Patrick the Great" starring Donald O'Conner, Peggy Ryan, and Donald Cook. It's a musical.

'That Hagen Girl' Stars Temple and Regan at Sunset

Robert Young and Susan Hayward share starring honors in "They Wouldn't Believe Me" which is now playing at the Sunset Theatre. Also featured on the bill is "the great" Gildersleeve in "Gildersleeve's Ghost." The double feature will appear on the Sunset Theatre screen today, Friday, and Saturday.

'That Hagen Girl'

"That Hagen Girl" starring Ronald Reagan and Shirley Temple opens Sunday and will be shown Monday and Tuesday, Jan. 25, 26, and 27, coupled with the attraction "The Spirit of West Point." Army's football greats, "Doc" Blanchard and Glenn Davis, have the leading roles in this story of the touchdown twins.

Wednesday Only

Attraction "Desperate" and "The Big Fix" come to the Sunset Theatre screen on Wednesday for a one day showing. "Desperate" stars Steve Brodie and Audrey Long, and the leading roles in "The Big Fix" are played by James Brown and Sheila Ryan.
