Air Parcel Post To Foreign Ports Will Begin Soon

Postmaster General Jesse M. Donaldson has announced that plans have been completed by the Post Office Department for the early inauguration of air parcel post service between the United States and those countries in Europe, the Middle East, Africa and the Near East where agreements can be worked out for the placing in operation of such a service.

Points to which, it is anticipated, agreements for this new service can be jointly agreed upon are the United Kingdom, Continental Europe, Bermuda, Newfoundland, Azores, Iceland, Sane-gal, Gold Coast, Belgian Congo,

Union of South Africa, Algeria, Tunisia, Egypt, Palestine, Saudi Arabia, Syria and India.

Ratification of the agreements with the respective foreign countries instituting the new service and the effective dates will be announced as soon as they are worked out and accepted between the United States and the individual nation involved. These announcements will include the rates of postage to be charged, the weight and size limitations and any other details necessary to send air parcel post overseas.
