Mt. Hood Slalom Races Are Postponed By April's 'Unseasonal' Blizzards

ZIG ZAG—Winter returned to the Mt. Hood area this week with new snow and a blizzard which caused postponement of the Portland Junior Chamber of Commerce Golden Poles giant slalom race last week-end.

New dates have been set for the event. Juniors will race May 15 and men and women, class A, B and C, will race on May 23. Tommy and Johnny West, Eddie and Maryellen Loveland and Donna Langdon are among young skiers from this area who are racing as juniors.

Hold Skating Party
Seventh and eighth grade pupils at Welches school held a skating party at Gresham last Friday. Mrs. L. D. Barnett, Mrs. Peggy Carlson, Jim Langdon and Mr. Zarley each took a carload of children.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Chapin have been spending the past week at their cabin at Oysterville, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Currier and children Pete and Joyce Ann are spending the week in Portland visiting relatives.

Rangers Planting Trees
Mr. Haines and Mr. Nelson, both of Gresham, came out to discuss the formation of a Scout troop in this area Wednesday night of last week.

A Forest Service crew has been planting trees on the hills above Brightwood the past week. Bert Holtby of Zig Zag attended a scaling school at West Fir last week.

Kelso Girl Feted At Bridal Shower

Miss Carmelita Gillham, Kelso, fiancée of John Karlen, Jr., Boring, was honored at a bridal shower given at the Sandy home of Miss Eunice Hall last week. Hostesses were Miss June Goger and Miss Hall.

Guests present were Mrs. Clarence Radford, Miss Rosa Mae Christie, Miss Geraldine Taylor, Miss Doris Burch, Miss Dorothy Faye Searls, Miss Tiny Hall, Miss Dorothy Bartlemay, Miss Kathleen Gillham, Miss Hattie Howatt and Miss Phyllis Madden.

Miss Joan Matters, Miss Marjorie Gregson, Miss Beryl Johnson and Miss Betty Darnell sent gifts but could not attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Gillham announced that their daughter will be married to Mr. Karlen June 12 at the Bethel Baptist church in Gresham.

The wedding was scheduled to take place May 15 but due to illness in the family it has been postponed.

Rainbow Girls Plan For State Assembly

Miss Pat Murray will represent Sandy's Rainbow girls as grand page at a state-wide grand assembly to be held in John Day May 27, 28 and 29.

Other delegates who plan to attend the convention are Miss Virginia Bartholomew, worthy advisor; Miss Helen Cooling, associate worthy advisor, and Miss Gloria Cope, charity. Alternates are Miss Clara Leum and Miss Ione Hergert. Mrs. Ruth Leum will attend as mother advisor.

Special recognition will be given to new assemblies, including the Sandy chapter. This is the first year the local chapter has attended the grand assembly.

At a meeting May 5, final plans will be made for the John Day meeting. Election of officers will also be held at that time.

Miss Doris Burch, Boring, was taken in as a new candidate at the girls' meeting April 21.
