Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Case
Married recently at Trinity Lutheran church, Gresham, were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Case (Gertrude Ide), who planned to make their home in Portland following a wedding trip to California.

Gertrude Ide and Lewis Case Are Wed By Candlelight at Lutheran Church

Trinity Lutheran church of Gresham was decorated with white and yellow snapdragons, pink azaleas and tall candelabra for the wedding on Saturday April 17, of Miss Gertrude Ide, of Gresham, and Lewis Case, of Boring.

In the presence of 300 guests, vows were exchanged by candlelight. The ceremony was read by Dr. Carl A. V. Lund. Henry C. Ide sang "Because," accompanied by Charles Carpenter, organist.

Wore White Satin
Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in white satin with sweetheart neckline and with white satin and lace veil. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and yellow rosebuds.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Dan C. McCallib, sister of the bride, gowned in pink satin with pink carnation and sweet pea bouquet. Bridesmaids were Mesdames Kenneth Freeman, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Vernon J. Sture, gowned in pink and blue satin respectively.

George Moore, Great Falls, Montana, cousin of the groom, was best man, and ushers were Edwin H. Ide and Eugene W. Ide, brothers of the groom.

A reception was held in the parlors of the church. Pouring were Miss Helen Lind and Miss Doris Bednar, Mrs. J. G. Sture was in charge of the reception, assisted by Mrs. August Johnson and Mrs. L. W. Hoffmeister. Mrs. Albert W. Ide cut the wedding cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Case left for a wedding trip through the redwoods and to San Francisco. For traveling, the bride chose a light blue suit with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations and yellow rosebuds.

They will make their home at 7217 S. E. Center street, Portland, upon their return.

Mrs. Case is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert G. Ide, rt 2, Gresham. She graduated from Gresham high school with the class of 1943. She has been employed by a furniture concern in Portland.

Mr. Case is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Case, rt 1, Boring, and a graduate of Sandy high school with the class of 1941. He served for two years with the maritime service during world war II. He has been employed with the Pacific Telephone Company in Portland.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Ide and Mrs. Kenneth Freeman, Corvallis.

Marian Gillespie, Clifford Pilster Take Vows May 2

BORING—Miss Marian Lucille Gillespie and Clifford Pilster, both of rt. 2, Boring, were united in marriage Sunday afternoon, May 2, at the Evangelical United Brethren church at Lentz.

Vows were exchanged in the presence of 150 guests before an altar banked with roses and snapdragons. The service was read by Rev. Floyd R. Startwell, with Miss Joyce Cash, Gresham, playing the wedding music.

The bride was gowned in white organza with full train and finger-tip veil held in place by a coronet. She carried a large corsage bouquet of white roses and sweet peas. She was given in marriage by her father.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Joyce Gillespie, Boring, sister-in-law of the bride, was gowned in pale blue dotted swiss with bouquet of bright yellow tulips and blue ribbons.

Bridesmaids were Miss Rosalie Gillespie, sister of the bride, and Miss Alice Pilster, sister of the groom. Both were gowned in yellow dotted swiss and carried bouquets of pink sweetpeas.

The groom's attendant was Harley Siron, Gresham, and ushers were Rodney Pilster, brother of the groom, and Duane Gillespie, brother of the bride.

A wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents in the Union district.

Mrs. Lavon Gillespie, sister-in-law of the bride, poured, and Mrs. Floyd Albin cut the wedding cake. Assisting at the reception were Miss Rosalie Gillespie, Mrs. Arthur Porter, Miss Barbara Brant and Mrs. June Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Pilster left for a wedding trip to British Columbia. For traveling the bride chose a two-piece frock of pink linen with white accessories and a corsage of pink sweetpeas.

Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Pilster will make their home near Gresham on Base Line road.

Mrs. Pilster is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Gillespie, rt. 2, Boring. She is a graduate of Union grade school and of Gresham high school with the class of 1946.

Mr. Pilster is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pilster, rt. 2, Boring. He attended grade school at Orient and graduated from Gresham high school with the class of 1945.

Mother's Day Tea Held by Lutheran School Students

A Mother's Day tea was sponsored by Immanuel Lutheran school's upper-room students and their teacher, Mrs. Ronald Krebs, last Friday afternoon, in a decorated school room, for the following mothers and patrons:

Mrs. Charles Johnson, Mrs. Charles Johnson Sr., Mrs. Charles Rutherford, Mrs. Melvina Kohler, Mrs. Richard Suckow, Mrs. Richard Krebs, Mrs. Henry Schwartz, Mrs. Milton Lindau, Mrs. Ernest Krebs, Mrs. Hazel Covey, Mrs. C. R. Caywood, Mrs. Tom Hall, Mrs. Carl Hanes, Mrs. Alice Richter, Mrs. Otto Motejl and Mike.

Each student presented his mother with a corsage and introduced her to the group.

The students presented a program, announced by Marlene Motejl, of the following numbers: song, "Message to Mother," by lower grade girls; poem, "Somebody's Mother," by Geraldine Caywood; piano solo, "Off to Camp," by Ernest Gehrts; play, "Mrs. Club's Visitors," by upper grade girls; piano solo, "Nearer My God to Thee," by Marlene Richter; poem "My Angel Mother," by Pat Hall; piano solo, "Massa's in the Cold, Cold, Ground," by Edward Schwartz.

A Fine Service
AND A
Lasting Memorial

Because of the completeness and beauty of our funeral home, many are surprised at the modest prices, and the many extras included with each memorial, regardless of cost.

The answer is that we have but one standard for all—the finest in every case—the same personal, considerate arrangements regardless of price.

For a COMPLETE memorial, that can be remembered with pride, call us any time, day or night.
